*solemn vespers
the first sunday of advent*

Throughout this celebration of Vespers, we will observe several prolonged periods of sacred silence, during which we are not simply waiting for the next thing to happen; we are, rather, waiting upon the LORD. Sacred silence is active and attentive — an invitation to deeper prayer and interior stillness.

✠ OPENING VERSE AND RESPONSE ✠

At the ringing of the bells, all stand as the procession enters the church. Upon reaching the chair the celebrant intones the opening verse, and all join in singing the response and doxology:

All make the sign of the cross.

Presiding minister:  O God, ☩ come to my as - sis-tance.	Assembly:  Lord, make haste to help me.
All:  Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it:
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ev - er. A-men.

All sit. Before each psalm the organist will introduce the psalm tone, and the schola will intone the antiphon. The people and the schola will sing the psalms in alternation, and each line of the psalms should be sung without pause for punctuation. Immediately following the doxology, the people and the schola sing the antiphon together.

✠ ANTHEM ✠

Redeemer of the Nations, Come

arr. Robert Lee

Redeemer of the nations, come; reveal yourself in virgin birth; the birth which ages all adore, a wondrous birth, befitting God. From human will you do not spring, but from the spirit of our God; O Word of God, come; take our flesh and grow as child in Mary's womb. With God the Father you are one, and one with us in human flesh. Oh fill our weak and dying frame with godly strength which never fails. Your cradle shines with glory's light; Its splendor pierces all our gloom, our faith reflects those radiant beams; no night shall overcome it now. All praise, O unbegotten God, all praise to you, eternal Word, all praise, life-giving Spirit, praise, all glory to our God triune. AMEN.

CANTICLE OF MARY

Magnificat

from the Falsobordone Service; Arlen Clarke

Antiphon: Do not be afraid, Mary, you have found favor with God; you will conceive and give birth to a Son, alleluia.

When Mary visited Elizabeth before their sons were born, Elizabeth proclaimed her faith in the Word made flesh, who then lived inside of His mother. Elizabeth cried out “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.” In response, Mary sang of her confidence in God’s love and providential plan for each of us, and this hymn of praise is known as the “Magnificat” from its first word in the Latin text. As the schola sings this canticle, all make the Sign of the Cross at the beginning of the text, which in the Revised Standard Version is rendered:

✠ My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
for he has regarded the low estate of his handmaiden.
For behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed;
for he who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name.
And his mercy is on those who fear him from generation to generation.
He has shown strength with his arm,
He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts,
he has put down the mighty from their thrones, and exalted those of low degree.
He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent empty away.
He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy,
As he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his posterity forever.
(Luke 1:46-55)

Antiphon: Do not be afraid, Mary, you have found favor with God; you will conceive and give birth to a Son, alleluia.

✠ INTERCESSIONS ✠

The celebrant introduces the intercessions, and after each petition all respond:

Come and stay with us, Lord.

Celebrant To Jesus Christ,
our Redeemer, the way, the truth, and the life,
