

Saint Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville South Carolina

from the pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,

This Saturday, 25 January, is the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul, the Church's annual celebration of the day when Saul of Tarsus met the Lord Jesus on the Damascus Road – an event that changed Saul's life and the history of the world. 25 January is also each year the final day in a Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, an observance that begins on 18 January – in the old liturgical calendar the Feast of the Chair of St. Peter. So, the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity was devised to run between the twin feasts of the symbol of Peter's authority to teach and Paul's conversion to Christ, and this placement in the liturgical calendar shows us how Christian unity is to be found: through continuing conversion to the truth of the Gospel proclaimed authentically and authoritatively by the apostolic office of the Church.

In praying for Christian unity, we are asking God to restore full ecclesial communion to our separated brethren (both Orthodox and Protestant) in the one, true Church. But the restoration of that unity will be a world-historical event brought about only by the action of the Holy Spirit, and there is little that any of us can do to contribute directly to that lofty goal. There is, however, another dimension of Christian unity to which we can contribute personally, and it is both utterly simple and extremely difficult: We can each live in full communion with the Lord Jesus and his holy Church and do our best to show others how to do the same. This we do by radical conversion, deep fidelity, joyful discipleship, and courageous evangelism.

✠ Do I believe and profess everything the holy Catholic Church believes, teaches and proclaims to be revealed by God? Do I believe that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are inspired by God and contain no errors in matters of faith and morals? Do I believe that the Catechism of the Catholic Church is an authentic compendium of the saving doctrine of the Lord Jesus and a faithful statement of Catholic teaching in full keeping with Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition? Do I surrender my intellect and will in the obedience of faith to the Gospel transmitted in and by the Catholic Church?

✠ Do I live according to the saving truth of the Gospel? Do I attend Mass every Sunday and holy day of obligation? Do I confess my sins regularly in the Sacrament of Penance? Do I bear witness to Christ by my manner of life and my behavior, both personal and professional? Am I married in the Catholic Church, or if not, do I refrain from receiving the sacraments? Do I make decisions, especially difficult decisions, according to the mind of Christ or simply according to my own wisdom? Do I live according to the Ten Commandments and Christ's Law of Love?

Believing and behaving lead to belonging. If I want to belong to Christ and his Church fully and faithfully, then I must believe the truth of God's Word and behave according to the truth of the Gospel by grace through faith. In this Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, let us be guided by Peter's faith and Paul's conversion to be committed Catholics and true witnesses to Christ.

High School Youth Group

Sunday 19 January: Join us for our regularly scheduled meeting from 6:00-8:00 pm in McGrady Hall. This will be our first meeting of the New Year! Come for Dinner, and hear the fantastic story of one of our YG Volunteers, from a Hindu home in India to saving faith in the Catholic Church. We will close out the meeting with a time of Praise and Worship.

A big part of our weekly meeting is the meal. We ask each youth to provide a Main Course, Side or Dessert every 6 months. We will have meal sign up at the Sunday 19 January meeting.

Sunday 19 January: Come here more about our plan to attend the Diocesan Youth Conference at White Oak Conference Center on 7-9 March. The theme for this year's conference is "Seek the Lord!" It is based on the scripture 1 Chronicles 16.11 "Seek the Lord and His strength, seek His face always."

It is easy to get distracted from what is important in life. Many times we say to ourselves if only I had this, or I looked like that, I would have everything I need. Only to find out once we accumulate material things in our lives that we are still not happy, or we just want more to try to fill us up. Being with the right group, or having the newest and best are not going to fill you and keep you satisfied. The only thing that will last and will satisfy you is Jesus Christ. Jesus tells us time and time again, if we seek Him, we will find him! So stop chasing things that are not going to last... come find out what does last... come find out what will fill you up and give you a distinct purpose in your life! Come find out what will never let you down and never give up on you... come experience Jesus Christ in a way that you never have before!

We will have information packets and the required forms at the January 19th Meeting. Newcomers are always welcome!

We invite anyone who is interested in the pro-life movement to attend our Culture of Life meetings which are held on the third Tuesday of every month in Sacred Heart Hall at 6 pm in the large conference room, 2nd floor. Our next meeting will be this coming Tuesday 21 January. Please come.

Spiritual Adoption Program

We are now in the 5th month of pregnancy.

Your spiritually adopted baby weighs over one pound now, and his mother can feel his movement. Before this time he was too small for her to feel. Although he swam with ease in his watery world, he needed to be big and strong to kick hard against the outside wall and dent it – the inside wall of the uterus has little feeling. We are mid-way through the pregnancy now. Your prayers have helped your baby's mother continue with her pregnancy and seek the help she needs.

Please continue to pray for your spiritually adopted baby with the following prayer:

“Jesus, Mary & Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.”
