

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

8 February 2015

Dear Friends in Christ,

This Tuesday is the Feast of Saint Scholastica, the twin sister of Saint Benedict, father of Western monasticism. These two saints were born in the Italian mountain town of Nursia (Norcia in Italian) around the year 480, and Scholastica died on 10 February 547. To put their lives in the context of the times, Saint Patrick was born around 387 and died in 493, when Benedict and Scholastica were 13 years old. We know very little for certain about the life of this holy woman, and the only reliable written source is a book called Dialogues written by Pope Saint Gregory the Great, who was himself a Benedictine monk. In his book, written in 593, Pope Gregory tells us that Scholastica was the superior of a community of nuns living under the Rule of St. Benedict about five miles from her brother's famous monastery at Monte Cassino. Saint Scholastica is the patroness of all women living under the Rule of St. Benedict.

Despite being the birthplace of Benedict and Scholastica, the town of Norcia did not have an active monastery of Benedictines from 1810 until 2000, when a new community of monks – founded by an American living and teaching in Rome – took up residence there. In the fifteen years since the return of monastic life to Norcia, the Monastero di San Benedetto has prospered and received many new vocations, among whom is a young man from the Upstate now testing his call to the monastic life. The Monks of Norcia follow the traditional pattern of life established by Saint Benedict in his famous Rule for Monks, and it is an arduous existence of prayer and work, Ora et Labora. To learn more about this remarkable community, please visit www.osbnorcia.org. Part of the struggle to establish a new monastery in an ancient and remote place is the need for generous assistance from those who want to see contemplative life flourish in the Church, so please consider making a gift at www.osbnorcia.org/donate, and you can also learn more on YouTube and Facebook by searching for Monks of Norcia.

Next week is the last Sunday before the beginning of Lent on Ash Wednesday, 18 February. The schedule for Ash Wednesday and a summary of the Church's disciplines of fasting and abstinence from meat are in the e-bulletin, and these simple reminders of the coming 40 Days should spur us to find concrete ways before Lent begins to deepen our faith and resolve to follow the Lord Jesus ever more perfectly in the Way of the Cross. On Ash Wednesday the Church will remind us starkly of our mortality: "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return." These words are an invitation to conversion and the obedience of faith, and that is confirmed by the prayer of blessing which precedes the imposition of ashes: "O God, who desire not the death of sinners, but their conversion, mercifully hear our prayers and in your kindness be pleased to bless these ashes, which we intend to receive upon our heads, that we, who acknowledge we are but ashes and shall return to dust, may through a steadfast observance of Lent gain pardon for sins and newness of life after the likeness of your Risen Son, who lives and reigns for ever and ever."

LENTEN REGULATIONS 2015

Each year the holy season of Lent provides us a special time of grace and spiritual renewal so that we may become better instruments in sharing the Gospel.

This year, Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, falls on 18 February. The present laws of the Church regarding fast and abstinence during the Season of Lent are as follows:

1. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast. On days of fast, one full meal is allowed. Two lesser meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted. Catholics who have completed their 18th year are bound by this law until the beginning of their 60th year.
2. Ash Wednesday and all Fridays of Lent are also days of abstinence. On days of abstinence, meat should not be eaten at any meal. The law of abstinence binds all Catholics who have completed their 14th year.

The Obligation to observe, as a whole or "substantially," the penitential days specified by the Church is a serious obligation. The Code of Canon Law states:

"On these days (of Penance), the faithful are in a special manner to devote themselves to prayer, to engage in works of piety and charity, to deny themselves, by fulfilling their obligations more faithfully and especially by observing the fast and abstinence..."

May this Holy Lenten Season provide us an opportunity for deepening our faith, hope and love through a life of deeper prayer, penitential practices, and works of charity.

Mass Intentions

At St. Mary's, it is customary to publish Mass intentions in the parish bulletin and music booklets, but for the Mass to include a particular intention, it is not necessary that it be publicly mentioned. God knows the intention of the person who made the request, as well as the intention of the priest to remember it. Because the intention is a spiritual act, naming or publishing neither adds to nor subtracts from its efficacy.

Bulletin Submissions

The deadline for items is 12 days prior to the bulletin date. To submit items for the e-bulletin, contact Lisa Watkins at lisa.watkins@stmarysgvl.org.

Gala Save the Date

"Evening with St. Mary's" Annual Gala

Friday, 29 May at 7.00 pm

Principal for a Day: Recently, Miss Corbett stepped into Sr. Mary Sheila's shoes and led the school as Principal for the Day! She kicked off the morning by greeting students as they arrived and leading the school in morning prayers. Then Miss

Corbett went to her office where sent the School Reach text, notifying all parents that school will dismiss early on Friday, and where she planed the distribution of candy for the entire school. She met with Father Newman, helped organize a thank-you photo for the teeshirts, and was the Master of Ceremonies during the afternoon assembly. Miss Corbet had a true taste of how busy it is to be a principal.

Principal for a Day is one of our popular Gala auction items. Do you think your child or grandchild has the stuff to run the school for the day? Win this prize at the 2015 Gala and your child can be principal during next school year!
