

Saint Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville South Carolina

from the pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,

I want to share some good financial news and ask for your continuing support, both for the parish and for the ministry of our diocesan bishop. Our stewardship guidelines recommend that each household in the parish divide its tithe in this way: 5% to the parish in the primary offertory; 1% to the diocese in the Bishop's Annual Appeal; and the remaining 4% to other charities of your choice, including our parish capital campaigns and second collections. In all three categories we are doing very well, thanks to your generosity.

1. We need to raise an average of $31,500 in the primary collection on each of the 52 Sundays of the year in order to pay our bills, and since the beginning of our current fiscal year on 1 July 2013, we have met that goal and slightly exceeded it. As of today, we have a small surplus of about 2% for the fiscal year which will end on 30 June 2014, and to finish the year in the black, we need regular contributions from every household in the parish, each according to its means.

2. Every year the diocese calculates our parish goal for the Bishop's Annual Appeal, and for 2013 our goal was $84,510. During 2013 we actually contributed $98,142 to the BAA, meaning that we made 116% of our target. When any parish exceeds its goal, all of the money above the target is returned to the parish in two ways: half goes to a parish endowment account managed by the diocese and half is sent back to the parish for local use. So even as we give thanks for exceeding our goal last year, it's time to make your pledge to the BAA for 2014, and each household in the parish will receive a letter from the bishop for this purpose. Our goal for 2014 remains the same as last year, and I ask you to be as generous as possible. Thank you for your commitment to support the work of our bishop and assist him in fulfilling his duties as chief shepherd and high priest of the Church in South Carolina.

3. During 2013 we needed to raise $750,000 in capital gifts, and we actually raised $747,000. With this money we made significant improvements to the storm water drains around the church and under Miller Square, we replaced the roof of Sacred Heart Hall, we continued to pay down loans from previous projects, we completed the construction of the sacristy addition, Miller Square and Grace Grotto while providing a beautiful new statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary for veneration at the center of our campus. We also dramatically increased the amount of light around the church at night, resurfaced the outdoor basketball court and the parking lot around the gym, built new storage space next to the chiller building behind the columbarium, and created three new offices on the second floor of Gwynn House – the parish office building. I will be writing to you soon about our capital needs for 2014, but our goal for this year will remain the same as last year: $750,000. Please plan now to continue your sacrificial support which makes our campus a place of singular beauty in the heart of the city.

Emily Stimpson Growing Up Too Fast

The Sexualization of American Girlhood

Thursday, 20 February, 2014 — 6.30 pm — McGrady Hall

Stimpson will address how the push to sexualize women at a younger and younger age is harming girls, boys, and the culture as a whole. She'll address what mothers and fathers can do to help their children reject the harmful message of sexualization coming at them from the culture and find their identity as young men and women in Christ.

Emily Stimpson is a freelance Catholic writer based in Steubenville, Ohio. Her books include These Beautiful Bones: An Everyday Theology of the Body (Emmaus Road, 2013) The Catholic Girl's Survival Guide for the Single Years (Emmaus Road, 2012) and the Courageous! series of Bible studies for teen and pre-teen girls. Her next book, an almanac of Catholic history in America, will be published by Random House in Fall 2014.

As a contributing editor to Our Sunday Visitor Newsweekly and a blogger for Catholic Vote, she writes regularly on "all things Catholic"—from politics and catechesis to higher education and the media, with a special focus on the Church's teachings on marriage, sexuality, and femininity. Over the years her writing has also appeared in First Things, Touchstone, Franciscan Way, the National Catholic Register, Faith and Family, Lay Witness, Catholic Digest, and elsewhere. It has been honored by both the Catholic Press Association and the Associated Church Press, and was included in Loyola's Best Catholic Writing series.

Emily holds a BA from Miami University of Ohio (Phi Beta Kappa, summa cum laud), where she studied political science, history, and English literature. She also did graduate work in political theory at John Hopkins University and theology at Franciscan University.

Dominican Nugget from the Sisters

What does "O.P." mean?

The Sisters at our school are Dominican Sisters. So why aren't the initials after their names "D.S."?

Although the religious family started by Saint Dominic is commonly referred to as "Dominican", when he founded the group St. Dominic asked that it be officially named "The Order of Preachers". This is why his followers continue to list "O.P." after their names. The Order of Preachers received this name because they were committed to knowing Truth (Jesus) through prayer and study, and then sharing Truth with others through preaching. You will never find a Dominican Sister, an "O.P.", who is afraid to proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ!

Application: Am I uncomfortable talking to others about my relationship with God? If I am saved by Jesus and have realized that new life and happiness can only be found in Him – how can I keep this to myself? Is there a friend, co-worker, or stranger this week who needs to hear the name of Jesus on my lips in order to open their hearts to Him?
