

Saint Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville South Carolina

from the pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,

The city of Rome is famous for its seven hills, all of which are on the east side of the Tiber River. Not counted among those seven hills are two more that are on the west side of the Tiber: the Vatican Hill and the Janiculum Hill. The Pontifical North American College, my alma mater, is the Roman seminary of the Catholic bishops of the United States, and it sits near the top of the Janiculum Hill, providing a spectacular view both of St. Peter's Basilica and of the ancient heart of the Eternal City. At their highest point above the City, the walls of the North American College are engraved with words painted red which tell of the place of Rome among Christians everywhere. In Latin, the inscription reads: O Roma felix quae duorum principum es consecrata glorioso sanguine, and in English these words mean: O happy Rome, you have been consecrated by the glorious blood of the two princes (of the Apostles). The princes in question, of course, are Saint Peter and Saint Paul.

Since the early third century, the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul has been kept in Rome each year on 29 June, and the holy lives and faith-filled deaths of both Apostles are celebrated in this single liturgical commemoration of their martyrdom. That is why today the Church's altars and ministers are clothed in red as a sign of "the glorious blood of the two princes." This solemnity is not the only remembrance of Peter and Paul in the liturgy; on 25 January we keep the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul, and on 22 February we celebrate the Feast of the Chair of St. Peter. But on this day we remember them together as disciples of the Lord Jesus who gave their lives in witness to him and as Apostles who remained faithful to their vocations to teach, sanctify and govern the Church.

The fisherman from Galilee and the rabbi from Tarsus could not have been more unlike in their backgrounds, personalities and education. Simon was a rough and simple man who supported himself and his family by hard labor, and Saul was an intellectual given to deep study from his earliest years and who never married. But both of these men were called by the Lord Jesus to be his chosen instruments for the conversion of the world and the founding of his Church, and in their love for and faith in Christ, both men were changed and strengthened to spend their lives to the last drop of blood that others would know the truth of the Gospel and the beauty of the life of grace.

The Entrance Antiphon for this great feast sings of their courage, in the hope that we will follow their example: "These are the ones who, living in the flesh, planted the Church with their blood; they drank the chalice of the Lord and became the friends of God."

Father Newman

THE DIOCESE OF CHARLESTON

June 2014

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our participation in the Peter's Pence Collection gives us an opportunity to be a witness of charity to our brothers and sisters around the world. Gifts to this annual collection help the Holy Father support victims of war, natural disasters, and others most in need of assistance.

On Easter Sunday, 2013, Pope Francis encouraged each person to be a witness of charity. He said, "Let us be renewed by God's mercy and let us become agents of this mercy, channels through which God can water the earth, protect all creation, and make justice and peace flourish." Pope Francis has continued to remind us through his actions that we must serve our brothers and sisters in order to be true Disciples of Christ.

Join with me and our Holy Father and be a witness of charity throughout the world. You can participate through your donations, prayers, and outreach to spread the message of need. Please be generous in the Peter's Pence Collection. To learn more about the Peter's Pence Collection, please visit <http://www.usccb.org>.

I am grateful for your kindness. Together let us ask the Lord to bless the Holy Father and us, as well as those in need throughout the world.

In the Lord's Peace,

Most Reverend Robert E. Guglielmone
Bishop of Diocese of Charleston

This collection will be taken up in the Diocese of Charleston on June 29th

The Really Good, Really Big, Really Cheap Book Sale!

Do you have books at home in new or gently-used condition that you would like to donate for a great cause? The Really Good, Really Big, Really Cheap Book Sale, Greenville Literacy Association's largest annual fund-raiser, will be held at McAllistair Square on 15-17 August. A successful book sale needs tons of books - both adult and children's, fiction and non-fiction, modern and classic, hardbound and soft cover.

Please place your books in the collection boxes located in Sacred Heart Hall. The boxes will be in place until 1 August. This is a major fund raising effort for a most worthy organization, and we thank you for your support.

Vacation Bible School 2014

Cool Kingdom Party: Mary Leads Me Closer to Jesus

It was truly an amazing week – 20 adult volunteers, 44 teen helpers, and 68 children, and a week long program learning about Mary, the saints and the virtues. We learned all about St. Dominic Savio, St. Therese of Lisieux, St. Joseph, St. Francis of Assisi, and Blessed Mother Teresa. We also studied a virtue each day: obedience, purity, faith, love and joy. The children completed beautiful crafts including a Mary grotto, cross clip & kingdom water bottle holder, poster on how to pray the rosary, rosary bracelet, rosary boxes and each day the children took home a saint card for the day.

Special thanks to Kayla Weston (chair), Elizabeth McLeer (co-chair), Cristina Ortiz (faith), Shana Upham (crafts), Jessica Sadowski (saints & virtues), Gracie Feltes (games), Catherine Johanning (snacks), Kelly Burns (music), Jessica Devine (nursery), Stansberry (our special guest playing Mary). Also thanks to Kay Betsch, Jana Heroman, Karen Joseph, Judy Lema, George & Mairin McLeer, Jennifer Pienta, Jacinta & Rosemarie Ortiz, Philip Paluszak, Heather Vreeman, Lousie Wadas, Kirsten Zinkann, who were group leaders or assisted in the special areas.

We would also like to thank the teen volunteers, who gave their time, making VBS a huge success. Please know that we are grateful, and it could not have happened without you. Just to name a few who went the extra mile with the preparation and execution: Arlen Clarke, Mary Farina, Christopher Payne, Billy, Dana, and Claudia Williamson, and Lisa Watkins.

Thanks to Father Newman, the families shared in a special Mass on Friday and it was a great way to end our week.

The children and adults were asked to respond to the question: how to you spend your time, talent and treasure? The children answered that they shared their treasures by: collecting $264.06 for the poor box; they shared their time by making people smile, praying the rosary, chairing VBS, and volunteering; and they shared their talents by playing, choir rehearsals weekly and singing for God at Mass, good at baseball, sports, swimming, participating in VBS, reading, good with little kids, and making Mrs. Miller happy by volunteering.

Then to top it off they brought in 103 cans of food for the Salvation Army. Great job!

Have a great summer!

Medical Mission Trip to Guatemala

The International Ministries Department of the Diocese of Charleston will be hosting the next mission trip to San Pedro La Laguna 21-28 September. While these are medical mission trips, you do NOT have to be a medical professional to participate. Yes, we need interpreters, dentists, dental assistants, physicians, nurses and other medical professionals. However we also need supportive staff participants to make these trips successful. These missions provide much needed health care for the people of San Pedro and surrounded villages; participants often find this experience to be life changing.

If you are interested in finding out more, please visit the website at sccatholic.org/international-ministries or contact Deacon Gabriel Cuervo at gcuvro@catholic-doc.org or 803.726.7768.
