Greenville South Carolina

from the pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,

Evangelical Catholicism is the name we give here to the Church's universal mission to preach the Gospel to all nations, but while fulfilling the Great Commission is a constant imperative for the Church, how that mission is accomplished has changed widely according to time and place. The Second Vatican Council, Pope Paul VI, Pope Saint John Paul the Great, Pope Benedict XVI and Pope Francis are calling us to a New Evangelization, by which is meant that we must announce the Gospel as though for the first time in places where it was long ago proclaimed. But this is not the first time the Church has faced this challenge, and on Friday of this week, the sacred liturgy recalls a man who engaged in a New Evangelization nearly 800 years ago!

In the late 12th and early 13th centuries, large numbers of people were carried away from the truth of Christ by a strange heresy called Catharism. Ignorance, superstition, and immorality were rife, including among the clergy, and this was a thousand years after many parts of Europe had received the Gospel with saving faith. The Church needed a New Evangelization, and the instrument God provided for this mission was Dominic Guzman, who was born in Calaruega, Spain in 1170 and was a priest of the Spanish Diocese of Osma. Early in the 13th century, he was traveling with his bishop on a mission to Scandanavia which took them through southern France, and it was there that Dominic saw firsthand the misery of the Church caused by the wide acceptance of heresy. This experience moved him to begin preaching the Gospel with new energy and dedication, and soon others wanted to join him. The young men who joined Dominic became the Friars of the Order of Preachers, and Dominic also became spiritual father to several communities of contemplative nuns who were also part of his Order. Dominic's principal means of accomplishing his mission were a simple, apostolic way of life rooted in prayer; deep study of Holy Scripture, philosophy, and theology; urgent and persuasive preaching of the Gospel; and complete fidelity to the Church and loving obedience to her pastors, starting with the Bishop of Rome, the Successor of St. Peter. In later centuries, active congregations of teaching and nursing Sisters would join the Dominican family, and our own Nashville Dominican Sisters belong to that part of the worldwide Order of Preachers.

St. Dominic died in 1221, and his feast is kept on 8 August; the Order of Preachers he founded as a perpetual gift to the Church shows us that a New Evangelization can succeed in even the most unlikely places with what appear to be the most inadequate means. On 15 August, a young man who was received into the Church at St. Mary's (Brother John Thomas Fisher, OP) will profess his first vows as a friar in the Order of Preachers, and here at the parish we have a chapter of the Dominican Laity. Watch the bulletin in the coming weeks for more information about the Dominican Laity and how to participate in their activities. And let us all take courage from the example of the St. Dominic and his Order of Preachers, who show us how to preach the Gospel by a life of Christian virtue and sacrifice. St. Dominic, pray for us!

Summer Projects on Campus

Work in Gallivan Hall is expected to be completed by 8 August and Sacred Heart Hall by 15 August. We apologize for any inconvenience caused by our summer projects and greatly appreciate your patience.

Welcome Newcomers

We welcome the following new members to our parish family: Mr. & Mrs. Kenneth Miller and Mr. Brendan Andrew.

What Do Catholics Believe?

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) is an introduction to the beliefs and practices of the Catholic Church, and anyone who wants to understand the Catholic Faith more deeply is invited to participate. At St. Mary's, RCIA meets each Wednesday evening from Labor Day until just after Easter. Those who have never been baptized, those who were baptized but never confirmed, and those simply seeking to know more are all welcome to attend.

While this course is first and foremost a process for bringing non-Catholic adults into the Church, it is also a great place for practicing Catholics to increase their knowledge of foundational Church teaching - in particular on those topics that often come up in conversations with non-Catholics. One practical thing that any parishioner could do to evangelize would be to invite a non-Catholic friend who might be interested in learning what the Catholic Church really teaches to join you in attending when the class begins in the fall.

Class Location:	Wednesdays
McGrady Hall	Beginning 3 September
(the church undercroft)	6.30 through 7.30 pm

You may pre-register by contacting Dana Williamson at Dana37@aol.com, or see the parish website at stmarysgvl.org/catechesis/becoming-catholic.

Defeating Satan's Deadly Weapon Against Men

Pornography has become pervasive in our culture - a true plague, infecting nearly every corner of our society. Its disastrous effects are seen in sexual addiction, ruined marriages, and shattered lives. Jeff Cavins notes that many men struggle with pornography. With great insight, he shows how we can fight pornography's devastating influence and chart a course to true Christian purity.

From the PTO

Well folks – We have officially headed into the second half of summer and it's time to start planning ahead for the kickoff of another great school year. From one mom to another the number one pet peeve of mine is my kids losing track of their stuff. The beginning of the school year is extra challenging with all the new things in their life – books, bags, uniforms, etc. It is easy to see how things can get lost. It seems like I am constantly chasing down jackets, sweatshirts, lunch boxes, shoes, hats, belts, sports gear and books! You name it...If one my kids has one, we have lost it at one time or another. I started using Mabel's Labels when the kids were in preschool and I still use them and I have one in high school! The sticky labels and skinny minis don't wash off in the dishwasher and the Tag mates don't come off in the washer and dryer! These labels are life-changing! It is like installing a boomerang on all their stuff!

I promise you will not regret having a stash of these on hand for the start of school. If you want to keep it simple just order the Basic Kit or order the Big Kaboodle and you will have a sample of all you'll need for the school year. I buy just one kit with our last name only and use it for the WHOLE family. There are many more labels to help keep your home organized - so check out the link to the website below and order some for yourself AND your kids. St. Mary's will receive 20% commission on all the orders! The orders are processed quickly (6-12 business days) and will ship directly to your home. You may even wonder how you got along without them! You can order any time you like between now and September 30th. But trust me you will want them before school starts!

If you have any trouble navigating the site or have questions about the product call me, text me or email me – Joy Dickerson 864-630-1146 or joyandcam@charter.net!

Happy summer!

Joy
