

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

14 December 2014

Dear Friends in Christ,

On the Saturday after Thanksgiving, I arrived on campus in mid-afternoon to set up for Confessions and Mass, and I met a couple in Miller Square who were taking pictures of the church and columbarium. I welcomed them to St. Mary's and invited them to stay for Mass, and they explained that they live in the Low Country and aren't Catholic but make a point of visiting our campus whenever they are in Greenville because it is so beautiful and peaceful. In fact, that is why they were taking photos: so that they could show their friends in the Low Country what they regard as the most sacred place they know.

I tell you this story not to brag about our facilities but in the hope that, by seeing our home through the eyes of visitors, each of us can appreciate what a high privilege and sacred duty we have here in being stewards of such a singular place. There is a perennial tension within the Church between using the fruits of human labor for the relief of human need and suffering and directing those same goods to the creation and preservation of the structures and public spaces in which human communities are formed by prayer, study, service and recreation. But in seeking inventive ways of resolving that tension, we must never forget that bricks and mortar can be the very tools of helping to serve deep human needs. Those visitors from the Low Country were drawn here to find what every heart seeks: a visible expression of the beauty of God and a tangible manifestation of the love of God. Perhaps the worst poverty of all is the soul annihilating absence of goodness, truth and beauty from human life, and that is one of the many reasons why Christians in every time and place have sought to create oases for the spirit by raising up dignified temples of divine worship, noble structures for the education of the whole person, and green spaces for the rest and recreation of both mind and body.

Those who came before us at St. Mary's have bequeathed us a noble legacy which fulfills that goal of providing physical spaces in which the human spirit can soar, and it is given to us to maintain that precious patrimony and pass it on to those who will follow us. In the last decade we have made extraordinary progress in the expansion of our downtown footprint and the improvement of our buildings, and in the coming months I will begin to explain the vision for the next stage in our growth – including the provision of modern indoor restrooms in the church! For now, I ask only that you remember St. Mary's as you make plans for your end of year charitable giving. We did not seek any new capital donations this year so that everyone could take a little pause from the pace of the last several years, and so our need for your gifts this December is great. Our visitors from the Low Country asked me to pass along their gratitude for the sacrificial stewardship that makes possible a place of beauty and peace such as our campus, and I add my voice to theirs: Thank you for your generosity and your commitment to St. Mary's.

Father Newman

MASS COLLECTS FOR THE THIRD WEEK OF ADVENT

(May be used at home when lighting your Advent Wreath)

Sunday 14 December

O God, who see how your people faithfully await the feast of the Lord's Nativity, enable us, we pray,
to attain the joys of so great a salvation and to celebrate them always with solemn worship and glad rejoicing.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Monday 15 December

Incline a merciful ear to our cry, we pray, O Lord, and, casting light on the darkness of our hearts,
visit us with the grace of your Son.
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Tuesday 16 December

O God, Creator and Redeemer of human nature, who willed that your Word should take flesh
in an ever-virgin womb, look with favor on our prayers,
that your Only Begotten Son, having taken to himself our humanity,
may be pleased to grant us a share in his divinity.
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Wednesday 17 December

Grant, we pray, almighty God, that we, who are weighed down from of old by slavery beneath the yoke of sin, may be set free by the newness of the long-awaited Nativity of your Only Begotten Son.
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Thursday 18 December

O God, who through the child-bearing of the holy Virgin graciously revealed the radiance of your glory to the world, grant, we pray,
that we may venerate with integrity of faith
the mystery of so wondrous an Incarnation and always celebrate it with due reverence.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Friday 19 December

O God, eternal majesty, whose ineffable Word the immaculate Virgin received through the message of an Angel and so became the dwelling-place of divinity, filled with the light of the Holy Spirit, grant, we pray, that by her example we may in humility hold fast to your will.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Saturday 20 December

Hear in kindness, O Lord,
the prayers of your people,
that those who rejoice at the coming of your Only Begotten Son in our flesh may, when at last he comes in glory, gain the reward of eternal life.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

BEING A DISCIPLE OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST

Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ, so following the Lord Jesus as a faithful disciple requires that we read, study, and pray with Holy Scripture and that we observe the following:

The Ten Commandments

1. I am the Lord your God. You shall have no other gods before me.
2. You shall not take the Name of God in vain.
3. Keep the Sabbath holy.
4. Honor your father and your mother.
5. You shall not kill.
6. You shall not commit adultery.
7. You shall not steal.
8. You shall not bear false witness.
9. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife.
10. You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.

The Precepts of the Church

Being the Irreducible Minimum of Catholic Practice

1. To attend Mass every Sunday and Holy Day of Obligation.
2. To go to Confession whenever needed and at least once each year when properly prepared and not impeded by being married outside the Church.
3. To receive Holy Communion at least once each year during Eastertide and whenever properly prepared and not impeded by being married outside the Church.
4. To marry only in the Church and to keep the marriage laws of God.
5. To support the Church financially.
6. To keep the laws of fasting and abstinence.

The Corporal Works of Mercy

1. To feed the hungry.
2. To give drink to the thirsty.
3. To clothe the naked.
4. To visit the imprisoned.
5. To give shelter to the homeless.
6. To visit the sick.
7. To bury the dead.

The Spiritual Works of Mercy

1. To admonish and convert sinners.
2. To teach the ignorant.
3. To counsel the doubtful.
4. To comfort the sorrowful.
5. To bear wrongs patiently.
6. To forgive all injuries.
7. To pray for the living and the dead.

An Act of Contrition

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

REGISTRATION ENDS 14 DECEMBER

Classes begin week of 4 Jan 2015

THE BLESSED TRINITY: AND OUR CHRISTIAN VOCATION

This course analyzes the Divine Life of God — Father, Son, and Holy Spirit — as revealed in Sacred Scripture. It studies the Christian vocation and how God invites us to be in communion with him, so that we can share in the divine life that he has prepared for us from all eternity.

OUR MORAL LIFE IN CHRIST

This course presents a study of the moral life in Christ — based on his teachings in the Gospels, the Ten Commandments, and the beatitudes — which enable Christians, with God's grace, to imitate the life of Christ in their lives, to make correct moral decisions, and spread the Kingdom of God on earth in their journey toward eternal salvation.

School Spotlight

In October, the 7th Grade took a field trip to the Triune Mercy Center, located in downtown Greenville. The students met many people, including Pastor Deb, who showed them around. The point of the visit was not only to give them insight to the experience of homelessness, but to give the students ideas for their school wide Advent Mission Project. All grades are competing to donate the most non-perishable food to the Triune Mercy Center food bank which services the homeless right here in the City of Greenville.

All young adults (18-39) are welcomed & encouraged to join our ministry whose mission is to help young adults answer the universal call to holiness.

Worship

18 December - Women's Rosary Group at 7.30 pm. Join other LVG women in praying the rosary! Bring an hors d'oeuvres to share and enjoy wine provided by the hostess. Meg McG will be our hostess this month; you can contact her directly at 864.363.8753 to obtain her address if you're attending.

Service

In an effort to serve those in our community that have unmet technological needs, LVG is announcing an effort to collect your unused technology items. We will be refurbishing items, as needed, and donating them to the St. Vincent de Paul Society for use with those who demonstrate the need for a computer, printer, etc. As most of you are aware, we live in a world with increasing technological needs for education, training, job seeking, and more. This is a need that is out of the reach for many financially.

How to get items to LVG:

- drop off at Elgin Williamson Enterprises @ 942 South Main Street Greenville, SC 29601 (located across from the Greenville Drive). Ask for Claudia W. Open 9-5, Monday-Friday.
- bring your donation to any LVG event
- give your donation to any member of our Leadership Team
