Dear Friends in Christ,

One month from now, Pope Francis will visit the United States for several days, during which he will speak to a joint session of Congress in Washington, celebrate the World Meeting of Families in Philadelphia, and then address the United Nations in New York. This visit will not only be the first time Pope Francis has been in the United States, it will also be the first time Jorge Bergoglio has ever been in North America, and so we should expect the visit to attract extraordinary attention all around the country and the world.

Since his election to the Chair of St. Peter in March 2013, Pope Francis has demonstrated that he enjoys speaking extemporaneously and with colorful language designed to provoke the hearer to think deeply about his life and friendship with the Lord Jesus. This easy informality can be delightfully surprising from a pope, and it certainly plays well in the press. But it can also lead to confusion and misunderstanding, particularly when the secular media spin the pope's remarks to fit their agenda – something that happens regularly. For this reason, it is important for us to remember not to take at face value anything we read or hear about the pope's words during his visit in September. Instead, be sure to read the actual text of the pope's addresses and accurate transcripts of his informal remarks. There are many places on the internet to find the pope's words, and a quick search should turn those up.

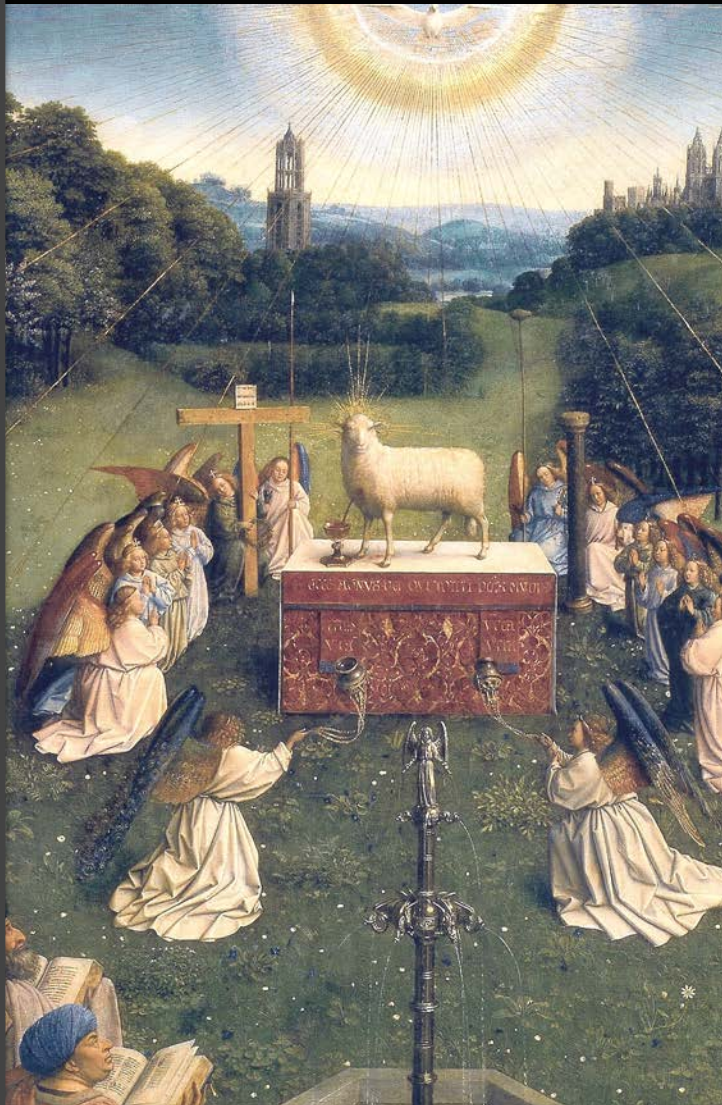

Even more than that, however, I encourage everyone to learn more about the early life and priestly ministry of Jorge Bergoglio in Argentina. Understanding this remarkable pontificate really isn't possible without some knowledge of the man, and a very good place to start learning about Bergoglio's life is a book called "The Great Reformer: Francis and the Making of a Radical Pope" by the British scholar Austen Ivereigh. Knowing about the circumstances of Bergoglio's childhood and education in Buenos Aires, together with his experiences as a young Jesuit superior in the midst of social chaos in Argentina and revolutionary fervors in the Church, is very helpful in grasping that Pope Francis defies easy categorization and certainly transcends the American way of dividing everyone into Left and Right.

Pope Francis has called the universal Church to keep a Jubilee of Mercy that will begin this December on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception – the 50th anniversary of the conclusion of the Second Vatican Council. During the Jubilee, Francis wants us all to learn how to show the world that the Church is a tender nurse in a field hospital rather than an angry scold rebuking people for their weakness and to be able to do so without compromising the truth of the Gospel which calls us all to continual and ever deeper conversion. Let us pray that during the pope's visit to the United States, everyone will see and hear the Successor of Peter as a witness to the Lord Jesus Christ and the transformative power of God's grace.

THE MYSTERY OF REDEMPTION AND CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP

This course examines man's need for redemption after the fall; the promise of redemption renewed throughout the Old Testament; and the Redemption achieved by the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ, as well as its application in the life of each Christian. It also shows how the Holy Mass is a perpetuation of the Paschal Mystery in our lives.

THE SACRAMENTS: SOURCE OF OUR LIFE IN CHRIST

Through his great love for us, Jesus Christ suffered and died for our redemption, and he desires to share the grace he won for us with every person. Christ entrusted the sacraments to the Church as the primary means by which we receive God's grace. This course examines each sacrament as a source of grace and an intimate encounter with Jesus Christ and the liturgy as the public worship of the Church.

INTRODUCTION TO CATHOLICISM

Starting Wednesday
9 September @ 6.30 pm
in Sacred Heart Hall

Interested in becoming a Catholic?
Or just want learn more about what Catholics believe?

Introduction to Catholicism is an introduction to the beliefs and practices of the Catholic Church, and anyone who wants to understand the Catholic Faith more deeply is invited to participate. This course meets each Wednesday evening from Labor Day until Easter. Those who have never been baptized, those who were baptized but never confirmed, and those simply seeking to know more are all welcome to attend.

While this course is first and foremost a process for bringing non-Catholic adults into the Church, it is also a great place for practicing Catholics to increase their knowledge of foundational Church teaching - in particular on those topics that often come up in conversations with non-Catholics. One practical thing that any parishioner could do to evangelize would be to invite a non-Catholic friend who might be interested in learning what the Catholic Church really teaches to join you in attending when the class begins in the fall.

School Spotlight - Virtues in Practice

At St. Mary's School, we supplement our standard religion curriculum with Virtues in Practice. This excellent program was designed by the Dominican Sisters of St. Cecilia. It encourages children from pre-K to eighth grade to grow closer to Jesus by imitating His life and virtues.

Each month, we focus on one virtue and give the students practical, age appropriate ideas on how to live out that virtue. The students get to learn about a new saint each month who serves as a role model of how to live out the virtue of the month.

This year we begin the Year of Faith, and we encourage the entire St. Mary's parish family to join us as we begin the cycle anew. The entire program is available for free.

Prayer for Vocations

Loving and gracious God, Father of all, you bless your people in every time and season and provide for their needs through your providential care. Your Church is continually in need of priests, sisters and brothers to offer themselves in the service of the gospel by live of dedicated love.

Open the hearts of your sons and daughters to listen to your call in their lives. Give them the gift of understanding to discern your invitation to serve you and your Church. Give them the gift of courage to follow your call. May they have the spirit of young Samuel who found fulfillment in his life when he said to you, "Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening."

We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

If you are discerning a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life, visit the Vocations Office website at CharlestonVocations.com.

Pilgrimage of Mercy Tour of the Major Relics of St. Maria Goretti

From September to November of this year the major relics of St. Maria Goretti will make a pilgrimage to the United States. Named the "Pilgrimage of Mercy," it is the first time that her body travels to the USA.

While St. Maria is universally known as the Patroness of Purity, her greatest virtue was her unyielding forgiveness of her attacker even in the midst of horrendous physical suffering, a forgiveness that would completely convert him and set him on a path to personal holiness. In March 2015, His Holiness, Pope Francis, announced an Extraordinary Holy Year of Mercy beginning December 8, 2015. This visit of the major relics of St. Maria Goretti is an effort on the part of the Holy See and Treasures of the Church to prepare and catechize the United States for this great celebration in the life of the Church.
