Dear Friends in Christ,

Too often the world seems to be coming apart at the seams. The Islamic Caliphate is raping, torturing and murdering without restraint and extinguishing the last remnants of Christianity in the Levant. Russia is again aggressive with the West, taking territory with impunity and threatening its neighbors with invasion and conquest. China is rising to be a global military power even as its economy plunges into instability, causing great concern for the governments of Japan, Korea, and the United States. Iran has emerged as the hegemon of the Middle East and is soon to have an arsenal of nuclear weapons, thus setting the stage for a war of unspeakable horror. And in the midst of all that, the American economy has contracted in the past two weeks by more than one trillion dollars, while the price of oil is on a constant roller coaster ride and both political parties manoeuvre for control of the White House with candidates who inspire little confidence in the health of our Republic even as they lay bare the deep and bitter divisions in this country. In other words, the world is a mess, and one might conclude from this chaos that darkness and despair are all that remain. But two events in the next month will remind the world that something better is possible. Indeed, something more is always with us, even when we don't perceive it.

On Wednesday of this week, Queen Elizabeth II will surpass her great-great-grandmother Victoria to become the British monarch with the longest reign in the very long history of that royal throne. Though we Americans are no longer British subjects, the special relationship between the United States and the United Kingdom remains one of the greatest forces for peace and prosperity in the history of the world, and the fortunes of Great Britain are therefore of great significance to people everywhere, including here in the former Colonies. Her Britannic Majesty has dedicated her long life to the service of her people and her duty before God, and she is a splendid example of how we can rise above adversity and grief with dignity and grace. Therefore, give thanks on Wednesday for the life and labors of "Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Her other Realms and Territories Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith."

Then from 22 to 27 September, the Bishop of Rome will come to visit the United States of America. Pope Francis sits upon the Chair of St. Peter and occupies the oldest continuously active office in the world today, and he speaks to the citizens of this nation as the Vicar of Jesus Christ and Supreme Pastor of the Universal Church. Papal visits are always charged with a sense of history, but this first visit of Pope Francis will undoubtedly be filled with many moments of grace - moments that remind us that hatred and violence do not have the last word in our lives or the history of the world. God be praised for His servants Queen Elizabeth II and Pope Francis.

September 2015

My Dear Friends in Christ:

I appeal to you today to give generously to the National Collection for The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. Catholic University is the national university of the Catholic Church – the only institution of higher education founded by the U.S. bishops and chartered by the Vatican.

The Catholic University of America educates clergy, religious, and young lay men and women from every geographical region of the country, and from far-reaching corners of the globe. CUA is faithful to the teachings of Jesus Christ as handed on by the Church and dedicated to advancing the dialogue between faith and reason. The University seeks to discover and impart the truth through excellence in teaching and research, all in service to the Church, the nation, and the world. Here are three ways, of the many, that CUA serves the mission of the Church:

- Nearly 500 Catholic parishes participate in the University's Parish Scholarship Program, through which 1,500 undergraduates are nominated by their pastors to receive annual scholarships valued at $4.5 million. Your gift helps to support a Catholic University education, which offers students a unique opportunity to develop individual passions and prepare for a lifetime of faith and service.
- Catholic University trains leaders in the Church. Through its national seminary, the University provides graduate degrees for seminarians sponsored by nearly 195 Catholic diocese in the U.S. More than 100 active and emeritus bishops and archbishops are alumni of The Catholic University of America.
- Pope Francis will celebrate Mass during his upcoming visit to Washington, DC. He will be the third pope to visit the Catholic University campus. No other U. S. university can make this claim. This unprecedented record signifies the central role CUA occupies in Catholic higher education.

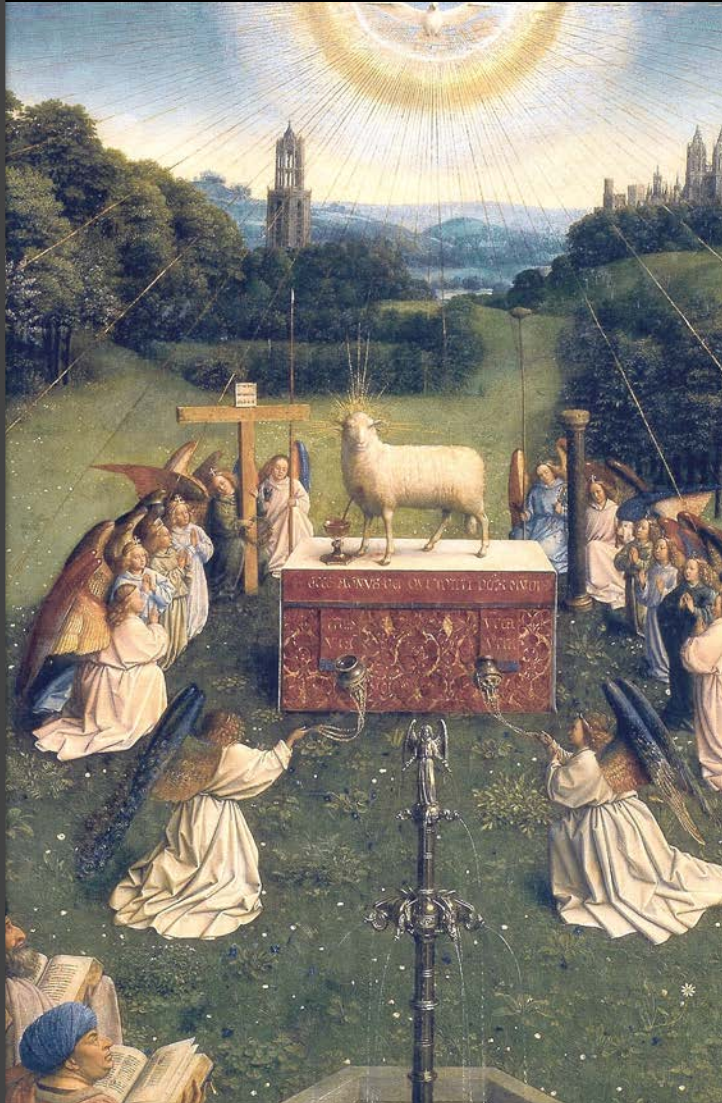

The National Collection for The Catholic University of American is a foundational source of support for CUA. Contributions from the faithful have benefitted generations of students, and we must perpetuate this legacy.

In the Lord's Peace,

Most Reverend Robert Guglielmone
Bishop of the Diocese of Charleston

THE MYSTERY OF REDEMPTION AND CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP

This course examines man's need for redemption after the fall; the promise of redemption renewed throughout the Old Testament; and the Redemption achieved by the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ, as well as its application in the life of each Christian. It also shows how the Holy Mass is a perpetuation of the Paschal Mystery in our lives.

THE SACRAMENTS: SOURCE OF OUR LIFE IN CHRIST

Through his great love for us, Jesus Christ suffered and died for our redemption, and he desires to share the grace he won for us with every person. Christ entrusted the sacraments to the Church as the primary means by which we receive God's grace. This course examines each sacrament as a source of grace and an intimate encounter with Jesus Christ and the liturgy as the public worship of the Church.

Made For Greatness

In a world that encourages the human person to 'just get by', many suffer from the unbearable sense of a life filled with unfulfilling relationships, meaningless work, and an unclear purpose and direction that seem to only lead to a greater longing for something more. 'The World offers you comfort, but you were not made for comfort, you were made for greatness.' –Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

Knowing that we are created in the 'image and likeness of God' (Gen 1:26), there is freedom in acknowledging our weaknesses and as our Holy Father, Pope Francis reminds us 'trusting in the infinite mercy and patience of our Lord Jesus Christ...in a spirit of penance' to take off the burdening yokes of complacency and feelings of unfulfillment, and place on the robe of joyfully living in the freedom of the fullness of life in Christ.

Join young adults from across the Catholic Diocese of Charleston in retreating for a weekend away, while learning of the greatness we are created in while living in the fullness of life in Christ with purpose, direction and joy!

Featured Speaker & Spiritual Director: Fr. Marcin Zahuta. Fr. Marcin is a native of Poland. Prior to becoming a priest he was a professional soccer player in Europe. He attended Sacred Heart Seminary in Detroit and was ordained in the Diocese of Charleston in 2006. Fr. Marcin has a great hunger to challenge and inspire young adults to live an excellent life in the fullness of Christ's teachings. He is currently the Pastor of St. Thomas More in Columbia.
