

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

1 November 2015

Dear Friends in Christ,

The Jubilee of Mercy will begin next month on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, and the official commencement of the Jubilee will occur in Rome when Pope Francis opens the Holy Door of St. Peter's Basilica. Jubilees have been kept in the Church since the year 1300, and they regularly occur every 25 or 50 years following the Jewish custom of keeping a special time of forgiveness of sins and debts every 50 years. One standard feature of Jubilee pilgrimages to Rome is the custom of passing into the four papal basilicas through the Holy Door at each church – a door which is opened only for this purpose during Jubilee years. And this practice, in turn, comes from the Lord Jesus who said “I am the door” to signify that only through Christ can we come to God the Father. (John 10.7) Because the Lord Jesus is the Way, the Truth, and the Life, we must pass through him to obtain everlasting life, and this begins in us at Baptism, through which one enters the Church as through a door.

After opening the Holy Door of St. Peter's on 8 December, Pope Francis will then open the Holy Door at his own cathedral church, the Basilica of St. John Lateran, on 13 December – the Third Sunday of Advent. The pope has asked that at every cathedral in the world a door be opened ceremonially on that same day to be a symbol of the Jubilee, and he has also encouraged bishops everywhere to extend the privilege of a Holy Door to several designated station churches throughout their dioceses. Bishop Guglielmone has allowed each of our seven deaneries to have a station church for the Jubilee of Mercy, and in the Greenville Deanery that church will be St. Mary's. Accordingly, before the 11 am Mass on Sunday 13 December, we will have a ceremonial opening of the bell tower entrance of St. Mary's Church, our designated Holy Door, and this will commence for us the Jubilee of Mercy.

God is love. This we know from divine revelation, and when the love of God encounters sin, then we find mercy. In this sense, there is no mercy without sin, and that is why St. Augustine insisted the miseria (misery) and misericordia (mercy) always go together. Sin always makes us sad, and the forgiveness of sin – God's mercy – brings us joy. That is what we celebrate in the coming Jubilee of Mercy, and a splendid preparation for this year of mercy would be to read the second encyclical letter of Pope St. John Paul the Great. It is entitled Dives in Misericordia (Rich in Mercy), and it is a magnificent meditation on the unconditional love of God revealed to the human race by the suffering, death, and Resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ. You can find the English text of Dives in Misericordia online at the Vatican website. Pope Francis has convoked the Jubilee of Mercy, but the Divine Mercy was also at the heart of the entire ministry of St. John Paul and so we invoke his intercession on the coming year of grace.

The Year of Faith

Life Lessons: The Gift of Our Father

When the disciples asked Jesus to teach them to pray, He taught them the prayer we know as the Our Father or Lord's Prayer. In this prayer, Jesus has revealed to us the Father's heart by teaching us to ask for the very gifts that God desires to give us.

We often come to prayer with a long list of petitions - the things we would like God to do for us and for those we love. Sometimes we are disappointed with His response. But when we ask for those things that God wants to give us, our petitions become truly powerful. God wants to give us those things that are necessary for our salvation - things that lead us to the eternal happiness of union with Him. And Jesus teaches us to ask for those very things by placing them upon our lips in this prayer: doing God's will, trusting Him to provide for our needs, receiving His forgiveness and offering forgiveness to others, recognizing the deception of temptation, and being set free from the influence of evil.

We also pray for the coming of God's kingdom. God is holy - hallowed be Thy name. He is majestic, high above all things - who art in heaven. Yet Jesus also teaches us that God is Our Father. In praying for the coming of His kingdom, we are asking the all-powerful, all-holy God to come to us. That would be an audacious request had not our Lord Himself instructed us to pray for it, teaching us to call out as children, "Abba, Daddy, come!"

This bi-weekly series of reflections on family prayer draws inspiration from the book A Short Guide to Praying as a Family: Growing Together in Faith and Love Each Day by the Dominican Sisters of St. Cecilia Congregation (St. Benedict Press, 2015)

Drawing from Scripture and Church teaching, the author roots Catholic male spirituality in a covenant relationship with God and the cross of Jesus Christ. He demonstrates that when a man embraces the cross he is truly able to be himself – the man that God created and calls him to be. Behold the Man can deepen a man's experience of Christ and help him to know the Lord more intimately.
