

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

28 February 2016

Dear Friends in Christ,

The first principle of Evangelical Catholicism says that “the Lord Jesus is the crucified and risen Savior of all mankind, and no human person can fully understand his life or find his dignity and destiny apart from an authentic friendship with the Lord Jesus. It is not enough to know who Jesus is; we must know Jesus.” This last distinction is crucial for a life of genuine discipleship. It is possible to know who Jesus is – for decades – without ever really knowing Jesus, and those who merely know who he is cannot be participants in Christian faith and life; they are spectators only. But how do we come to know him? How can we have an authentic friendship with the Lord Jesus?

The Savior himself gives us the answer to these questions in his teaching recorded in Chapter 15 of the Gospel of John. The scene is the Upper Room at the Last Supper, a setting which gives special urgency to the words of the Lord Jesus: “As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told everything that I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain.” (John 15.9-16)

The Lord Jesus calls us his friends because he has told us everything given to him by his Father. This is the supernatural gift of divine revelation – the Gospel which is the power of God unto salvation for all who believe. When we receive this sacred teaching with the obedience of faith, then we are strengthened by grace to love one another in the truth and to keep the commandments, not as an effort to earn a place in God’s kingdom but as a consequence of our having been made a new creation by the grace of Baptism, a grace that is renewed every time we go to Confession and worthily receive the Most Holy Eucharist.

As with any friendship, our friendship with Christ deepens over time as we come to know the Holy Scriptures more thoroughly, as we learn to pray more devoutly, as we seek to serve those in need with greater charity, as we acquire a Christian view of the world more completely, and as we surrender ourselves in love to Christ and his Church with greater conviction. During these 40 Days, as we prepare to renew the promises of our Baptism when we celebrate the Passover of the Lord, this deepening of our friendship with the Lord Jesus should be our constant goal and guide, and that, in turn, prepares us to fulfill the eighth principle of Evangelical Catholicism: “All the baptized are sent in the Great Commission to be witnesses of Christ to others and must be equipped by the Church to teach the Gospel in word and deed. An essential dimension of true discipleship is the willingness to invite others to follow the Lord Jesus and the readiness to explain his Gospel.”

The Program of Catholic Studies presents

St. John Paul II's

Familiaris Consortia

The Family Under Attack

presented by

T.J. Nielsen

What are the bright spots and shadows for the family today?

What is God's plan for marriage and the family?

What is the role of the Christian Family?

Join us for our Faith and Culture lecture series this Thursday at 6.30 pm in Sacred Heart Hall. T.J. Nielsen will be speaking on St. John Paul II's apostolic exhortation, Familiaris Consortia and the role of the family in society and the life of the Church.

"But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have bread enough and to spare, but I perish here with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me as one of your hired servants."' And he arose and came to his father. But while he was yet at a distance, his father saw him and had compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his servants, 'Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet; and bring the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and make merry; for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.' And they began to make merry." - St. Luke 15:17-24.

Prayer for Vocations from Pope St. John Paul II

Lord Jesus, once You called the first disciples in order to make them fishers of men. Continue to let resound today Your sweet invitation: "Come and Follow Me."

Grant to young men and women the grace of responding promptly to Your voice. Sustain our bishops, priests, and consecrated souls in their apostolic work. Give perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are fulfilling the ideal of a life of total consecration to Your service.

Enkindle in our communities a missionary zeal. Send,
Lord, workers into Your fields and do not let mankind be lost because of a lack of pastors, missionaries, and people dedicated to the cause of the Gospel.

Mary, Mother of the Church, Model of Vocations, help us to say "Yes" to the Lord Who calls us to collaborate in the divine design of salvation. Amen.

School Spotlight Valentine Waffles, K3

Mrs. Connelly, one of our regular substitute teachers, had a special treat in store for our littlest ducks on Valentine's Day. She lead the K3 class in making heart shaped waffles.

This activity reinforced hand hygiene, which the students learned about at the beginning of the year, counting through measuring ingredients, and following steps in order to complete a task. The students enjoyed cooking and loved eating the end result!

St. Mary's School 28th Annual Classic & Gala 3 June 2016

St. Mary's Classic & Gala is our biggest fund raising event of the year. On the morning of June 3, there will be a golf tournament followed by an evening of auctioning, dancing, and fun. Save the date and consider donating your time and talents to helping us make this amazing event a success!

Gala Sponsorship Invitation

We invite you to participate in this year's event by becoming a Gala Sponsor. The proceeds from this year's event will go toward a state of the art projection system for Gallivan Hall and iPads for our elementary classrooms. If you or your company is interested, please respond by 15 March 2016.

Volunteers Needed

Have a knack for setting up/doing displays? We need 8-10 volunteers who will help set up the auction items beginning at 9.00 am on Friday, 3 June in the ballroom at Embassy Suites.

Prior to that day, volunteers will see and be familiar with 10-12 auction items that they will be responsible for "fluffing" and making look great.

We are also looking for 1 or 2 volunteers who will help with the overall vision of the set up and be there on that morning as well.
