

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

29 May 2016

Dear Friends in Christ,

As He was ascending to the glory of the Father, Jesus said, "Behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age" (Mt 28.20). And He also taught us: "Amen, amen, I say to you: unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you do not have life within you" (John 6.53). He fulfills both of these promises by remaining with His Church and giving Himself to us in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.

"The mode of Christ's presence under the Eucharistic species is unique. It raises the Eucharist above all the sacraments as the perfection of the spiritual life and the end to which all the sacraments tend. In the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist the body and blood, together with the soul and divinity, of Our Lord Jesus Christ and, therefore, the whole Christ is truly, really, and substantially contained....It is by the conversion of the bread and wine into Christ's body and blood that Christ becomes present in this sacrament....The Eucharistic presence of Christ begins at the moment of the consecration and endures as long as the Eucharistic species subsist. Christ is present whole and entire in each of the species and whole and entire in each of their parts, in such a way that the breaking of bread does not divide Christ." (cf. CCC 1374, 1375, 1377)

"The Council of Trent summarizes the Catholic faith by declaring: 'Because Christ our Redeemer said that it was truly His body that He was offering under the species of bread, it has always been the conviction of the Church of God, that this holy Council now declares again, that by the consecration of the bread and wine there takes place a change of the whole substance of the bread into the substance of the body of Christ our Lord and of the whole substance of the wine into the substance of His blood. This change the holy Catholic Church fittingly and properly calls transubstantiation.'" (CCC no. 1376)

In the Most Blessed Sacrament we behold the same Christ now worshiped in glory by the angels and saints: Come, let us adore Him!

monthly devotions

june - sacred heart of jesus

The Catholic practice of assigning a special devotion to each month goes back to the early 16th century. The dedication of each month is based on historical events or a particular aspect of the liturgical calendar, or a combination of the two.

The Feast of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus is a moveable feast celebrated on the Friday following the second Sunday after Pentecost (i.e. 19 days after Pentecost) — this year on 3 June. It most often takes place in June, and thus June is traditionally dedicated to the Sacred Heart. Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, long practiced privately, was officially approved by Pope Pius IX in 1893.

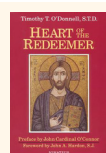

The devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus has its roots all the way back to the time of the Apostles, and arguably even before this in the Song of Songs penned by Solomon. St. John the Evangelist is the Apostle associated with the Sacred Heart devotion because 1) he was known as the disciple due to the theme of love repeated in his Gospel and epistles, and 2) he was called the “Apostle of Love” whom Jesus loved, 3) he had the special privilege of reclining on the chest of Jesus at the Last Supper.

In the Middle Ages the heart of Jesus as the center and wellspring of Jesus’ love became a specific object of adoration. The Sacred Heart also represented the passionate and infinite love for us, both the physical wound incurred by the woundedness of Jesus’ heart, (by the centurion’s spear), and to his physical heart on the cross, and so great that he gave up his life the spiritual wound of a love because of it, even while his love is scorned by those for whom it was generously given.

Thus devotion to the Sacred Heart is twofold: it 1) adores the infinite and self-giving love of Jesus, and 2) adores Jesus’ heart in reparation for the disdain, rejection, and coldness his loving heart endures from others. In honoring the Heart of Christ, our homage lingers on the Person of Jesus in the fullness of His love. This love of Christ for us was the moving force of all he did and suffered for us ~ in Nazareth, in His teaching and healing, in His praying and working, on the Cross, and in giving Himself in the Blessed Sacrament.

St. Gertrude, St. Mechtilde, St. Clare, St. Catherine of Sienna, St. Aloysius Gonzaga, St. Bernard of Clairvaux, and Pope St. John Paul II, to name a few, are saints who had a particular devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. These saints wanted to have a heart like His. Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus includes prayer, frequent Holy Communion, visits to the Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle or monstrance, and devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Blessed Virgin Mary. In addition there are the particular devotions revealed specifically to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque for widespread devotion in the universal Church: The Sacred Heart Feast Day, The First Friday Devotion (receiving Holy Communion on the first Friday of every month), and the veneration of an image of the Sacred Heart.

Prayer for Vocations

Loving and gracious God, Father of all, you bless your people in every time and season and provide for their needs through your providential care. Your Church is continually in need of priests, sisters and brothers to offer themselves in the service of the Gospel by lives of dedicated love.

Open the hearts of your sons and daughters to listen to your call in their lives. Give them the gift of understanding to discern your invitation to serve you and your Church. Give them the gift of courage to follow your call. May they have the spirit of young Samuel who found fulfillment in his life when he said to you, "Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening."

We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

An Introduction to Catholicism

What is Catholicism?

Is the Catholic Faith in the Bible?

Did the Lord Jesus found the Catholic Church?

Our course called An Introduction to Catholicism is designed to answer these and many other questions about the origins of Catholic Christianity and the shape of Christian faith and life within the Catholic Church.

The classes meet on Wednesday evenings from 6.30 to 8.00 pm from Labor Day through Easter, and all are invited to come and discover what it means to be a disciple of the Lord Jesus in His holy Catholic Church.

Donations needed for The Really Good, Really Big, Really Cheap Book Sale!

Do you have books at home in new or gently-used condition that you would like to donate for a great cause? The Really Good, Really Big, Really Cheap Book Sale, Greenville Literacy Association's largest annual fund-raiser, will be held at McAlister Square on 12-14 August. A successful book sale needs tons of books – both adult and children's, fiction and non-fiction, modern and classic, hardbound and soft cover.

Please place your books in the collection boxes located in Sacred Heart Hall. The boxes will be in place for the month of June. This is a major fund raising effort for a most worthy organization, and we thank you for your support.

St. Sharbel Makhlouf Relics at St. Matthew - Charlotte

The relics of St. Sharbel Makhlouf, the holy Catholic monk of Lebanon, will come to Charlotte 4-5 June in honor of the 50th anniversary of his beatification. On Saturday 4 June an evening liturgy is scheduled to welcome the relics at the south campus in Waxhaw at 5.30 pm. At 7 pm in the main campus' Daily Mass Chapel, there will be a service of healing prayers and vigil. On Sunday 5 June at 10.45 am a Roman rite Mass will be celebrated at the main campus, followed by a second Mass in the Maronite rite at 12.30 pm that will include a procession in the presence of the relics. For more information, visit StMatthewCatholic.org.

ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC WOMEN'S CLUB'S SPRING LUNCHEON

The Spring Luncheon is a very inspiring time as it culminates the efforts of St. Mary's council work for yet another year, the 91st in our history. Organized in 1925, we are the oldest affiliate of the South Carolina Council of Catholic Women (SCCCW), which is a medium through which the Catholic women of the Diocese of Charleston may speak and act as one unit providing service to the Church and community. Our mission is carried out through the works of three Commissions: Spirituality, Leadership and Service. These Commissions encompass the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. Each church affiliate is spearheaded by a Spiritual Advisor, usually the church pastor. Also, the SCCCW's Spiritual Advisor is appointed by the Bishop of Charleston.

Spiritual Advisor Fr. Jay Scott Newman officially installed the new officers for the 2016-17 year. From left: Treasurer Judy Franzen, Recording Secretary Patty Naylor, Co-Presidents Taylor Smith and Shelby Gaschler, and Vice President Rita Brown.

Treasurer Franzen presents a $500 check to Sister Mary Sheila toward the School's Endowment Fund. Additionally, audiovisual materials for the School's Saints program have also been provided by the Women's Club during the past 3 years. All money received from fundraising events is given to Catholic charity programs at the end of the club's year.

President Veronica Yockey and Scholarship Chair Amy Lindler proudly pose with the recipient of this year's $1,000 Scholarship Award, Miss Moseley Palms. This award, provided by the Women's Club, is presented to a female parishioner who is graduating from high school and continuing on to college or in a continuing education program.

Peggy Moulton was not able to attend the SCCCW Convention to receive her Diocesan CWOY award. Therefore, Fr. Newman presented her with the Our Lady of Good Council pendant and a plaque during the 11:00 Mass on April 24th. Peggy's family was in attendance and a brunch was served following the Mass to honor her.

Her name has now been submitted to the National Council of Catholic Women for consideration as the National CWOY.

Rita Brown was chosen as the Club's 2016 Catholic Woman of the Year. The Committee ranks each nominee in the areas of family, council involvement, church, community, civic work and other contributions. Rita will now be entered into the running for the Greenville Deanery CWOY later in the year. The 7 Deanery CWOY from around the state are then entered into the running for the SCCCW CWOY. The current SCCCW CWOY is our own member Peggy Moulton who was chosen at the SCCCW Convention held in Myrtle Beach in March of this year.

Here, Fr. Newman pins the Bridget Kenny Lacher Memorial Award pin, which is provided by Mr. Johann Lacher in memory of his mother each year, on Rita.

Members who have reached the age of 90+ years are recognized each year. They were:

Jean Boggs, 99 years
Alma Furman, 97 years
Ruth O'Rourke, 96 years
Helen Williams, 92 years,
Lorice Black, 90 years.

Jean Boggs, pictured right, is also the longest member, joining the club in 1937.

Information on the Women's Club can be found on the Church website at www.stmarysgvl.org. Click on "Parish Organizations" and "Women's Club". You may also contact Pat Webb at 864.419.0467 or patwebb1010@charter.net. Club meetings are held the second Tuesday of each month, September through May. Communication with our membership is provided through electronic mail. "Like" us on Facebook at "Saint Mary's Catholic Church Women's Club, Greenville, SC" to follow our news and photos.

Life Lessons: Living Tabernacles

In the Old Testament, we hear how God manifested His presence to His chosen people. As He led them out of Egypt, they saw a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night. Whenever they erected the tabernacle in their journey through the desert, a cloud would rest on it – again a sign that God was dwelling among them. When Solomon built the Temple in Jerusalem, a cloud came down and filled the Temple at its dedication – God was pleased to continue to dwell with His chosen people.

In the Gospel of John, we are told that the Word became flesh and dwelt among us - literally 'pitched His tent' among us. God wants to be present to us, to enter into our lives, to enter into our joys and sufferings - so much so that He became man in order to do so. And more than that, at the Last Supper, Jesus instituted the Sacrament of the Eucharist. Now, every time the Mass is celebrated in obedience to His command – "Do this in memory of Me" – bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. The Word made Flesh dwells with us still. In this Sacrament, the eternal Son of God comes to dwell in us. He does not descend from heaven simply to dwell in tabernacles of gold and silver, but in living, breathing, loving tabernacles – true Temples filled with God's presence. What a gift! A prayer of thanksgiving after receiving Holy Communion acknowledges and welcomes His presence within us. Why not stay a little while after every Mass and pray a thanksgiving after Holy Communion with your children? Teach them by your words and your example how great a guest they have received.
