Greenville, South Carolina

2 October 2016

Dear Friends in Christ,

My shoulder surgery is on Tuesday of this week, and so I will not be back at the altar of St Mary's for next few weeks. I am grateful for the assistance of my brother priests and deacons in providing for the sacramental life of the parish and for the promise of your prayers for a speedy recovery. Many of you have graciously offered practical assistance, and I promise to be in touch if I need anything.

My surgery happens to fall on the feast of Saint Francis of Assisi, who was ordained to the diaconate but not to the priesthood. When I was a newly ordained deacon, the first place I assisted at the altar was in Assisi at the tomb of Saint Francis. Of all the saints in the two thousand years of our history, Francis may be the one who most fully seizes the Christian imagination, and while that inspires many to follow Christ more faithfully, it can also lead to misconceptions about the life and work of Francis himself. So in the service of dispelling some of those misconceptions, I recommend two books about the Poverello of Assisi, both of which help us understand Francis more clearly. The first biography I recommend is Saint Francis of Assisi by G.K. Chesterton, published in 1923. This slim volume captures the personality of the man and places him firmly in the history of his time and place in the Church, and as with everything written by Chesterton, it is a rollicking good read. The second text I recommend is Francis of Assisi: A New Biography recently written by Augustine Thompson, OP – a Dominican friar and professor of medieval history and philosophy at the Dominican School of Philosophy and Theology in Berkeley, California. Father Thompson's biography is a more scholarly work than Chesterton's but is very accessible to all readers. Both of these books will change the way you understand one of the great Christian witnesses of all time.

Finally, this Friday is the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, originally called the Feast of Our Lady of Victory – a devotion introduced after the victory of the Christian fleet over the invading Muslim fleet at the Battle of Lepanto on 7 October 1571. The Ottoman fleet of over 250 ships carried more than 80,000 soldiers and sailors, and the Christian fleet – patched together from many European sovereignties with the blessing of Pope St. Pius V – engaged the enemy near the Greek port of Lepanto (from the Latin form of its name), also known as Nafpaktos. The Turkish fleet was destroyed in one of the greatest naval victories of all time, and the victory was attributed by many to the thousands of people praying the Rosary in preparation for the engagement at the request of the pope, hence the twin names of the feast: Our Lady of Victory and Our Lady of the Rosary. Look up the Battle of Lepanto on the internet, and learn about one very dramatic moment in a very old conflict between Islam and the West.

St. Mary's 101

The School Motto

The school motto "Tradition, Virtue, Excellence" summarizes the school mission statement. These three words give us a focus and direction in all we do, but what do they mean? This week we will look at Excellence:

Excellence

All men and women are called to holiness. This includes striving to develop our individual talents for the glory of God and having the zealous desire to fulfill His plan for us each day and throughout our lives. At St. Mary's we learn each month about Saints who fulfilled this call and our faculty and staff act as living witnesses by role-modeling the zeal of giving one's all for God and by holding our students accountable to the highest expectations, calling them to personal excellence: spiritual, academic, artistic, and athletic. (See Matt. 25.14-30 and CCC #2013-2015, 2030.)

Teacher Feature - Sr. Marie Celine, 2nd Grade Teacher

Where did you grow up?

I grew up mostly in Northern Virginia in Lorton, VA a suburb of Washington, D.C.

What was your favorite subject in School?

I don't think I had a favorite subject in school. I had a favorite teacher: the Sister who taught me in 5th grade. She was a Dominican Sister who God used to plant the first seeds of my vocation.

What are your favorite hobbies?

My favorite hobbies are painting icons, walking, reading good books, and singing.

What do you like most about St. Mary's?

My favorite thing about St. Mary's is the children and families. My students are surprising me with amazing questions, beautiful prayers to God, good efforts, and honesty about their need for God. At the Potluck, Pray, and Play, I was able to get a small glimpse into the families of the school.

Diaconate Formation Information Meeting

In communion with the bishop and priests, deacons are ordained for a distinct ministry, which is indicated by their name: they are ordained for service. They function in all three areas of the Church's life: transmission of the Word, celebrating of the sacraments, and in the community's active love. The deacon, therefore, is more properly defined in terms of who he is rather than of what he does. He is a visible sign of the Church's call to "diakonia" — service. He is both servant and sacrament.
