

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

27 November 2016

Dear Friends in Christ,

“It was December, and another Christmas was at our throats.” The English humorist P.G. Wodehouse thus described the unholy frenzy that too often accompanies the approach of December 25th, and it is a sentiment most of us can readily understand. To avoid succumbing to that feeling, we need to see what the Grinch perceived with wonder from the summit of Mt. Crumpit: That Christmas “came without ribbons; it came without tags. It came without packages, boxes or bags.” And the very best way to arrive at this insight is to keep a holy Advent.

The twin peaks of the liturgical year are Easter and Christmas, and both of these celebrations are preceded by a period of preparation. The purple of penance must come before the gold of glory revealed in Christ's Birth and Resurrection, and this is where the cultural and secular observance of Christmas can get in the way of a good Advent. On the radio and at the mall, Christmas has already been at our throats for some time, but today is only the first Sunday of Advent. And on December 26th when the Church is just beginning to celebrate the liturgical season of Christmas, evergreen trees will pile up on the curb and Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer will disappear until next Halloween. Let's just say STOP!

We now have four weeks in which to ponder the profound mystery of Christ coming to us for our salvation. In the past he did come to suffer and die for us. In the present he does come in Word and Sacrament to strengthen us in holiness. And in the future he will come in glory to judge the living and the dead. All three of these “advents” are part of this beautiful season of the liturgy, and if we attend to the Church's rhythm of prayer, penance and preparation, then when Christmas Eve arrives, we will not be exhausted; we will be elated.

So, how to do this? 1) Get an Advent wreath and light it at home each night while praying the Collect from Mass that day. 2) Pray the Liturgy of the Hours, particularly each Sunday afternoon at 5 pm here in the church. 3) Come to Mass on weekdays as often as possible during Advent. Weekday Mass has a quiet, meditative quality that steals into our hearts and minds, and Advent is deeply enriched by Mass each day. 4) Encourage your family and friends to think of things other than packages, boxes or bags. Make a donation in someone's name to Catholic Charities or Catholic Relief Services. Write a letter to someone you love to tell them so. Volunteer to serve someone in need. 5) Go to Confession so that your Christmas Communion will truly be holy.

December is upon us, but another Christmas need not be at our throats. It can be in our hearts with joy beyond all telling if we prepare with a worthy Advent.

Father Newman

MASS COLLECTS FOR THE FIRST WEEK OF ADVENT

(May be used at home when lighting your Advent Wreath)

Sunday 27 November

Grant your faithful, we pray, almighty God,
the resolve to run forth to meet your Christ
with righteous deeds at his coming,
so that, gathered at his right hand,
they may be worthy to possess the heavenly Kingdom.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Monday 28 November

Keep us alert, we pray, O Lord our God,
as we await the advent of Christ your Son,
so that, when he comes and knocks,
he may find us watchful in prayer
and exultant in his praise.
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Tuesday 29 November

Look with favor, Lord God, on our petitions,
and in our trials grant us your compassionate help,
that, consoled by the presence of your Son,
whose coming we now await,
we may be tainted no longer
by the corruption of former ways.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Wednesday 30 November

Prepare our hearts, we pray, O Lord our God,
by your divine power,
so that at the coming of Christ your Son
we may be found worthy of the banquet of eternal life
and merit to receive heavenly nourishment from his hands.
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Thursday 1 December

Stir up your power, O Lord,
and come to our help with mighty strength,
that what our sins impede
the grace of your mercy may hasten.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Friday 2 December

Stir up your power, we pray, O Lord, and come,
that with you to protect us,
we may find rescue
from the pressing dangers of our sins,
and with you to set us free,
we may be found worthy of salvation.
Who live and reign with God the Father
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

Saturday 3 December

O God, who sent your Only Begotten Son into this world
to free the human race from its ancient enslavement,
bestow on those who devoutly await him
the grace of your compassion from on high,
that we may attain the prize of true freedom.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

The Advent of Christ by Edward Sri

Perhaps the Christmas story has become almost too familiar. A virgin giving birth. A child laid in a manger. Shepherds greeted by angels. The Christmas story has become so familiar that the profound, even shocking, nature of the incarnation might be overlooked. But what if we had never heard the story before? What if we were hearing it for the first time, like the first-century Jews? These events certainly would not be taken for granted—they would signal something new: the dawning of the long-awaited Messiah. Available at Amazon and iTunes

Journey Through Advent Liturgical Cycle A

Get the most out of Advent by following along with Bishop Robert Barron's homilies as he unpacks these profound Scripture readings. The homilies presented on this CD will correspond to the Scriptures for Sunday Masses throughout Advent and Christmas 2016.

Available at LighthouseCatholicMedia.org
in CD and MP3 formats.

Advent at Ephesus

This unique CD is recorded by the Benedictines of Mary, Queen of Apostles: a young, monastic order of Sisters located in rural Missouri, dedicated to prayer for priests. Advent at Ephesus includes an amazing variety of traditional Latin and English hymns, polyphony, Gregorian Chant, medieval harmonies and an original piece to prayerfully lead you through the sacred season in preparation for Christmas.

Available at Amazon and iTunes

Joy to the World: How Christ's Coming Changed Everything (and Still Does) by Scott Hahn

What could be more familiar than the Christmas story – and yet what could be more extraordinary? The cast of characters is strange and exotic: shepherds and magicians, an emperor and a despot, angels, and a baby who is Almighty God. The strangeness calls for an explanation, and this book provides it by examining the characters and the story in light of the biblical and historical context. Bestselling author Scott Hahn who has written extensively on Scripture and the early Church, brings evidence to light, dispelling some of the mystery of the story. Yet Christmas is made familiar all over again by showing it to be a family story. Christmas, as it appears in the New Testament, is the story of a father, a mother, and a child – their relationships, their interactions, their principles, their individual lives, and their common life. To see the life of this “earthly trinity” is to gaze into heaven.

Baptisms take place on Saturdays at 6.15 pm after the 5.00 pm Mass. Attending a Baptism Preparation Class is required and may be attended prior to the birth of your child. The next class is scheduled for Monday 30 January 2017 at 6.30 pm in Sacred Heart Hall. Pre-registration in the Church office is required. Contact T.J. Nielsen at timothy.nielsen@stmarysgvl.org or 864.679.4114.

Dedication of Two Churches

On Saturday 26 November, Bishop Guglielmo will dedicate not one but two new Catholic churches in the Greenville Deanery. At 11 am this Saturday, our bishop will dedicate the first permanent home of the newly established Our Lady of La Vang Church. The site of this new parish for the Vietnamese community is a former Protestant church at 2020 Gibbs Shoals Road in Greer, not far from Highway 14. Then at 5 pm this Saturday, our bishop will dedicate the new church at Our Lady of the Rosary on Augusta Road. Although OLR was established in 1952, this will be the first time they have a building in which to worship which was designed exclusively as a church rather than adapted from other uses, and it is a beautiful edifice in the Romanesque style.

Greenville County is now home to nine Catholic churches, and with the year of their founding they are: St Mary's (1852), St Anthony's (1939), Our Lady of the Rosary (1952), St Elizabeth Ann Seton (1972), Blessed Trinity (1974), Prince of Peace (1976), St Mary Magdalene (1989), St Rakfa (2002), San Sebastian (2012), and Our Lady of La Vang (2016). More Catholics live in Greenville County than any other county in South Carolina, and more Catholics live in the Greenville Deanery than any of the six other deaneries in the Diocese of Charleston. The remarkable growth of our Catholic population in the past few decades is both a blessing and a challenge for all of us to work together for the spread of the Gospel and the service of others.

St. Mary's 101 - Parts of the church

When you stand in the main body of St. Mary's Church, in the pews or the aisles, you are in the nave of the church. This name comes from the Latin for ship (navis) and symbolizes Noah's Ark and the Barque of St. Peter. During Mass, the congregation is here for worship.

Walk up the two steps and you will find yourself in the sanctuary. Typically only the priest and the people who assist him (deacons, lectors, sacristans, and altar servers) go in this area.

In the center of the sanctuary is the altar. After hymns, readings from Scripture, and other prayers, the sacrifice of the Mass takes place at the altar. The priest, with a power handed down from the Apostles, stands in the person of Christ and repeats the words of the Last Supper, "This is My Body... This is My Blood" and what was once bread and wine is now Jesus Christ - Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.

The golden box behind the altar is the tabernacle. After Communion, any remaining hosts are reserved here. Since the bread has changed into Jesus, we say that "Jesus lives in the tabernacle". Jesus is also present in the Scripture and among the people at worship - but in a special, fuller, and more physical way in the Eucharist. This is why it is amazing to receive Him into our bodies during Communion, and why we genuflect (kneel on one knee and make the sign of the cross) toward the tabernacle when we enter church: to acknowledge the Presence of Christ Our King in the Eucharist.

The tabernacle of the Old Testament was the tent which contained the ark of the covenant. The ten commandments, manna, and the staff of Aaron were inside the ark. These represented the law and promise of life that were a part of God's covenant with Israel. At times, this wandering tabernacle would fill with the very presence of God.

New life in Jesus Christ is at the center of the promises of the New Covenant: the Eucharist is both the sign of the New Covenant and the True Presence of God. This is why the we also have a tabernacle.
