

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

23 April 2017

Dear Friends in Christ,

Christos Anesti! Alithos Anesti! These Greek acclamations mean “Christ is Risen! He is truly Risen!”, and in the Christian East – both Catholic and Orthodox – these acclamations replace the usual greetings of hello and goodbye during the fifty days between Easter and Pentecost, the liturgical season of Easter or Eastertide. During Eastertide, the first eight days have a special identity, and today in the liturgical calendar – eight days after Easter Sunday – has three names: 1) the Octave Day of Easter, 2) the Second Sunday of Easter, and 3) Divine Mercy Sunday.

The number eight has special meaning in the sacred liturgy because it is a symbol of the new creation. The drama of creation unfolded over seven symbolic days, and the eighth day is the sign of God's pluperfect love revealed in the new creation. This is foreshadowed in the Old Covenant through circumcision taking place eight days after birth and is confirmed by the Resurrection taking place on Sunday, both the first day of the week and the eighth day. Accordingly, in the liturgical calendar the eight days from Easter Sunday until today are kept as one festive celebration of the Resurrection, and today completes the eighth day or Octave of Easter.

Moreover, because the Gospel appointed for today speaks of the divine power to forgive sins which the Lord Jesus gave to his Apostles when he first appeared to them after his Resurrection, the emphasis of the liturgy today is on the great mercy of God. Modern devotion to the Lord Jesus as the embodiment of Divine Mercy is connected to the spirituality of St Faustina, a Polish mystic and religious Sister who was canonized by Pope Saint John Paul the Great, who died on the eve of Divine Mercy Sunday in 2005, was beatified on Divine Mercy Sunday in 2011, and was canonized on Divine Mercy Sunday in 2014. Saint John Paul decreed that the Second Sunday of Easter would be kept each year as Divine Mercy Sunday, and this beautiful title draws our attention today to the way in which that mercy is ordinarily extended to us after Holy Baptism: by going to Confession in the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation.

In his first Apostolic Exhortation, Evangelii Gaudium or Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis explained that as a teenager he had a life changing experience of mercy by going to Confession. “After making my confession I felt something had changed. I was not the same. I had heard something like a voice or a call.” This moment of mercy in the life of Jorge Bergoglio helps explain his burning desire to share God's mercy with others, and now as Pope Francis he describes the Church as a “community [that] has an endless desire to show mercy, the fruit of its own experience of the power of the Father's infinite mercy” (EG, 24). Let us keep this Octave of Easter, Divine Mercy Sunday, by resolving to seek the Lord's mercy for ourselves and be instruments of that mercy for others. Christos Anesti! Alithos Anesti!

CHARLESTON VOCA TIONS

Catholic Diocese of Charleston, SC

If you are discerning a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life, contact the Vocations Office.

Prayer for Vocations

Loving and gracious God, Father of all, you bless your people in every time and season and provide for their needs through your providential care. Your Church is continually in need of priests, sisters and brothers to offer themselves in the service of the Gospel by lives of dedicated love. Open the hearts of your sons and daughters to listen to your call in their lives. Give them the gift of understanding to discern your invitation to serve you and your Church. Give them the gift of courage to follow your call. May they have the spirit of young Samuel who found fulfillment in his life when he said to you, "Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening." We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

Vocation

"DISCOVERING VOCATION does not mean scrambling toward some prize just beyond my reach but accepting the treasure of true self I already possess. Vocation does not come from a voice 'out there' calling me to be something I am not. It comes from a voice 'in here' calling me to be the person I was born to be, to fulfill the original selfhood given me at birth by God."

– Fr. Thomas Merton, O.C.S.O. (1915-1968)

Thank You

“A heartfelt thank you to the parishioners of St. Mary’s who supported Birthright of Greenville through the 2016 Baby Bottle Campaign with a contribution of over $8,000.

With this donation, Birthright is able to provide the basic needs for 40 women coming for a first visit which includes a pregnancy test, prenatal development literature and models, maternity clothes, and baby items. It is often in this first visit that a woman finds hope and support to give her the strength to give her baby life. Birthright of Greenville is deeply grateful for the continuous support of St. Mary’s.”

Walk the Walk: Following Christ as His Disciple

From the Scriptures and from his own experience, biblical scholar Dr. Timothy Gray explains how Christian discipleship calls us to follow in the footsteps of Christ as engaged participants in God's plan, ordering our lives to bear witness to the Lord in our families, workplaces, communities, and to the world.

The Ultimate Goal: Why I Left Pro Soccer to Answer God's Call

Sister Raffaella Cavallin, a consecrated layperson with the Apostles of the Interior Life, shares her inspiring spiritual journey. At the height of her professional soccer career, while attending a parish mission, she discovered that the ultimate goal in life is to become a saint. Her story illustrates how holiness and happiness go hand in hand, and that through prayer, the Sacraments, and spiritual direction, we can live a Christ centered life and become the person God wants us to be.
