

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

11 June 2017

Dear Friends in Christ,

The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob is the one, only, living and true God, and He gradually revealed himself to Abraham and his descendants in order to make of them a chosen people. Through Moses, God gave to the children of Israel the high privilege and sacred duty of announcing to all the nations that there is but one God – “Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one.” (Deuteronomy 6.4) The gradual revelation of the truth about the living God reached its fulfillment in the Lord Jesus, true God and true man, and it is Christ who completed the self-disclosure of the one God by revealing Him in his unity to be a communion of three divine Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The Catechism of the Catholic Church describes the mystery of the Holy Trinity in this way:

“Christians are baptized in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit; not in their names, for there is only one God, the almighty Father, His only Son, and the Holy Spirit: the Most Holy Trinity.

“The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God in Himself. It is therefore the source of all other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them. It is the most fundamental and essential teaching in the hierarchy of truths of faith. The whole history of salvation is identical with the history of the way and the means by which the one true God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, reveals Himself to men and reconciles and unites with Himself those who turn away from him.

“The Trinity is a mystery of faith in the strict sense, one of the mysteries that are hidden in God, which can never be known unless they are revealed by God. To be sure, God has left traces of His Trinitarian being in His work of creation and in His Revelation throughout the Old Testament. But his inmost Being as Holy Trinity is a mystery that is inaccessible to reason alone or even to Israel's faith before the Incarnation of God's Son and the sending of the Holy Spirit.” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, numbers 233, 234, and 237)

This Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity always falls on the first Sunday after Pentecost, drawing the gaze of our contemplation to the mystery of God in Himself at the conclusion of Eastertide.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Father Newman

ROMAN CATHOLIC
OF CHARLESTON
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

May 2017

To the Faithful of the Diocese of Charleston,

Greetings in Christ! I pray this letter finds you and your loved ones well and in good spirits.

As the shepherd for the Diocese of Charleston, it is my responsibility to nurture a response to God's will, and to provide for the complete and well-rounded formation of the men who have entered the seminary in order to discern a call to the priesthood. As part of this request, on Sunday, June 11, 2017, we will take up our annual Seminary Collection to help support the 21 men studying to be priests for the diocese. Our need has more than doubled since I asked for your assistance one year ago. By supporting their formation process, you will help provide us with priests who are spiritually, intellectually, and pastorally ready to lead in Christ's name.

In addition to your financial support, I ask you to pray that more young men respond to God's call to the priesthood as our needs continue to increase with the growing Catholic population in South Carolina. Keep in mind Jesus' own words that "the harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few" (Lk 10:2), and encourage people to consider the call to the priesthood or religious life.

Your generosity will help provide for the spiritual needs of the Church in the diocese. Let us pray that God will continue to send us good and holy priests to serve his faithful people.

In the Lord's Peace,

Most Reverend Robert E. Guglielmone
Bishop of Charleston

The collection date for the Diocese of Charleston is June 11, 2017.
