Greenville, South Carolina

Dear Friends in Christ,

The Seventh Principle of Evangelical Catholicism states that “Being a follower of Christ requires moving from being a Church member by convention to a Christian disciple by conviction. This transformation demands that we consciously accept the Gospel as the measure of our entire lives, rather than attempting to measure the Gospel by our experience. Personal knowledge of and devotion to Sacred Scripture is necessary for this transformation to occur through the obedience of faith, and there is no substitute for personal knowledge of the Bible. Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ.”

Do you read the Bible at home? Do you have a Bible dictionary or commentary to help guide your reading? Do you set aside time even once each week to pray with Holy Scripture? Can you recite any verses of Scripture from memory? Do you know that the Catholic Church teaches that every word in the Bible is inspired by God and contains no errors in matters of faith and morals? Do you believe this to be true? If not, do you understand that you are not in full communion with the Catholic Church? These questions help focus our attention on some of the practical consequences of the Sixth Principle of Evangelical Catholicism. Even those who desire to surrender their entire lives to the Lord Jesus in the obedience of faith cannot do this unless they read and believe and reverence the Bible, because as St. Jerome (who first translated the entire Bible from Hebrew and Greek into Latin) teaches us: Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ.

The Second Vatican Council devoted one of its sixteen documents to the subject of divine revelation, and it explores the relationships among Sacred Scripture, Sacred Tradition, and the Magisterium of the Church. This document is called Dei Verbum (Latin for “The Word of God”) and is known in English as The Dogmatic Constitution on Divine Revelation. Dei Verbum is only a few pages in length and is available online. I heartily encourage all Catholics to study Dei Verbum as a means to understanding why there is no substitute for personal knowledge of the Bible.

“All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work.” (2 Timothy 3.16) “For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart.” (Hebrews 4.12) The devout reading of Holy Scripture does much more than teach us; it changes us. Reading Holy Scripture changes us in a way that no other form of reading can because when we open the Sacred Page with faith, the Lord speaks to us a word of grace and power unto repentance, conversion, and everlasting life. Immerse yourself in Holy Scripture, and in the Word of God you will come to know, love, and serve ever more perfectly the Word Made Flesh: the Lord Jesus Christ.

Dear Friends in Christ,

This year December 24th falls on a Sunday, and that means all Catholics have two Mass obligations to fulfill over one weekend.

The Fourth Sunday of Advent, like all Sundays of the year, is a holy day of obligation, and Christmas is also a holy day of obligation. Accordingly St Mary's will have both a regular schedule for Fourth Advent followed immediately by a regular schedule for Christmas, and everyone needs to attend Mass for both of these celebrations. There are, however, two options to avoid going to Mass twice on one day.

Option One

Attend Fourth Advent Mass on Saturday at 5 pm and then
Attend Christmas Mass on either Sunday evening or Monday morning

Option Two

Attend Fourth Advent Mass on Sunday morning and then
Attend Christmas Mass on Monday morning

We are moving the 5 pm Mass on Saturday 23 December from the church to the Baum Center to make room for those who might come that afternoon to celebrate Fourth Advent, but Confessions that day will remain in the church.

Whatever solution is better for you and your family, please plan now to attend Mass on both the Fourth Sunday of Advent and on Christmas so that we can all celebrate fully the life of grace to which Christ the Lord has called us in our Baptism.

Finally, let us be grateful that this convergence of Fourth Advent and Christmas Eve is rare and will not happen again until 2023!

Father Newman

National Beta School of Distinction

St. Mary's has been named a National Beta School of Distinction. This national award speaks highly of our commitment to academic excellence and illustrates our dedication to preparing students for college and future careers. We seek to exemplify the Beta motto, Let Us Lead by Serving Others. Thank you to our Jr. Beta Club members and Mrs. Rogers for such great work!

New Club - Youth in Government

Under the guidance of Mrs. Gallivan, St. Mary's set out on our first year involved with YMCA's Youth In Government (YIG).

YIG gives students an opportunity to practice servant leadership and active citizenship. Only the members of a social order can improve that order; by participating in the Model Legislature and Court Conference, delegates (members of Youth In Government) see how their government works with the hope that they will use that to affect change in their community.

As part of YIG, students strive to understand the American heritage of civil, religious, and personal liberty. They have an opportunity to search for facts and truth in public questions.

Twenty-five St. Mary's seventh grade students traveled to Columbia during November. After learning about law making and writing bills, they were able to present their work at Model Legislature in the South Carolina State House. Eight out of ten bills brought by St. Mary's students made it out of committee and to the Senate. Two of those Bills passed the Senate!

At the closing awards ceremony, St. Mary's was recognized as a first year delegation and seventh grader, Jun S. was recognized as one of the top ten delegates out of 650 middle school students.
