

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

14 January 2018

Dear Friends in Christ,

As the Prophet Samuel and the Apostle Peter were both called by name, so we too have each been called by name on the day of our Baptism. In a universal Church of more than a billion people, in a diocese of more than 200,000 people, and in a parish of nearly 5,000 people, it is easy for us to think of ourselves as just faces in the crowd - anonymous persons whose presence or absence will not be noticed and who make little or no difference to others or to God. But that is a lie of the Enemy.

To be called is also to be sent. We have each been called by name and have therefore received a unique and personal mission to accomplish in this life. Every baptized Christian is a missionary, and all missionaries have as their sacred duty and high privilege the task of introducing others to friendship with the Lord Jesus. The Church does not grow by means of programs or bureaucratic initiatives; the Church grows when one disciple of Christ introduces another person to the Lord Jesus and helps him come to know, love, and serve the Lamb of God who frees us from our sins.

In the Gospel appointed for this Second Sunday of the Year, we see that Andrew performed just such a work of evangelization when he told his brother Peter: "We have found the Messiah!" But as the Gospel explains, Andrew didn't simply tell Peter about Christ, he went further and brought Peter to Jesus. But how do we bring others to Jesus?

Bringing others to Jesus can be accomplished in many ways. We can invite others to join us at Mass, to study the Sacred Scriptures, to come for dinner with a group of Christian disciples, to attend a class, to participate in a recreational event with other Christians, or to share in some form of service to those in need. By the way we live, treat other people, and fulfill our duties in every part of life (home, marriage, parish, work, community, politics) we bear witness to the truth that Jesus Christ is Lord, and if our lives reflect the fruits of the Holy Spirit, then those who do not yet know the freedom of the children of God will be drawn to walk with us in the Way of Christ if we invite them to do so and help them receive the Word of God with saving faith.

But for any of this to happen, we must first be living in keeping with the grace of our Baptism. Each year at Easter we are asked to renew the promises of our Baptism, because it is by means of this first sacrament of the New Covenant that we become children of God, members of Christ, and heirs to the Kingdom of Heaven. We have been called by name to serve the living God and be witnesses to the truth of his Gospel, and each one of us has a personal contribution to make in fulfilling the Great Commission. So find someone who does not yet know the Messiah, and bring him to Jesus.

14 & 28 January

Dear Parents,

We are excited to announce a very special Real Love & Real Life family program sponsored by St. Joseph's Catholic School, St. Mary's Catholic Church, and Our Lady of the Rosary Catholic Church. Please join us:

When: Wednesday, 21 February 2018
Wednesday, 28 February 2018
Wednesday, 7 March 2018
Time: 6:30 pm – 8:45 pm
Where: St. John Paul II Center, St. Joseph's Catholic School, 100 St. Joseph's Drive Greenville, SC 29607
Who: Seventh & Eighth Grade Students with their Parents
Cost: $45.00 per family

Real Love & Real Life is presented by Family Honor, Inc. Since 1988, Family Honor has provided and promoted a family-centered, Catholic approach to chastity education.

In this Real Love & Real Life program, Family Honor will be presenting talks about communication, an understanding of our purpose in life, fostering virtues, including the virtue of chastity, recognizing what real love looks like, and fertility appreciation, ideas about dating and marriage, and much more.

We chose Family Honor to present a program here because they believe in parental empowerment. They believe you, as parents, are the first and best teachers of your children, and Family Honor wants to serve parents by helping to build and enhance bridges of communication between you and your child. Here, one parent shares what they liked most about the program, "It opened a door for me that wasn't open before between my daughter and me. I definitely feel more comfortable and confident discussing chastity with her."

There are lots of activities pulling families in many directions, but this is an experience that families look back on years later and say, "Wow – that really made a difference!" This is a chance to invest in one of your most precious assets – your child.

We are confident that you will find value in this program that far exceeds the registration fee of $45.00 which is due upon checking in at the first session. Scholarships may be available, as well. Deadline for registering is 12 February 2018. Space is limited so please sign up early at www.familyhonor.org.

Thank you for your interest, and we hope to see you at this program. We consider this a wonderful opportunity to learn more about building healthy, happy, and holy families.

Sincerely,

Gabe Lewis

2018 Calendars

We still have some 2018 calendars available in the parish office. You may pick one up during office hours (M-F, 9.00 am - 4.00 pm).

Baptism Class

Prior to having a child baptized at St. Mary's, you must have been registered in the parish for at least six months, attending Sunday Mass each week, using the stewardship envelopes, and participating in the life of the parish. Baptisms take place on Saturdays at 6.15 pm after the 5.00 pm Mass. Attending a Baptism Preparation Class is required and may be attended prior to the birth of your child.

The next class is scheduled for Monday 5 February at 6.30 pm in Sacred Heart Hall. Pre-registration in the church office is required. For questions, contact T.J. Nielsen at 864.679.4114 or timothy.nielsen@stmarysgvl.org.

St. Mary's Council of Catholic Women Sewing Ministry

The group meets on the 3rd and 4th Tuesdays, 10.00 am-12.00 pm, monthly from September through May. We invite any interested women to join us at the Sew Creative Sewing Studio, 1901-B Laurens Rd., Greenville. Bring a pair of sharp scissors or a rotary cutter. If you don't like to sew there are many other ways to help including cutting and ironing. We are currently sewing pillowcase dresses to send to the children's hospital/orphanage in Haiti in the spring. Contact Kim Adams at craigandkim@aol.com or 407.756.2255 for questions.

Greenville Deanery Council of Catholic Women

The winter meeting of the Greenville Deanery will be held on Sunday, 21 January at 2.00 pm in the cafeteria of the St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Church, 307 Gower Street, Greenville, 29611. The members of the St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Women's Council will be our host and provide a lunch. The Deanery Board of Directors will meet at 1.00 pm in the same location.

Plans for community projects and a spiritual retreat in February are among the items on the agenda. All Affiliate members are encouraged to attend. We also invite women from all Upstate parishes to join us and become involved in the work of the Deanery.
