

St. Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

21 January 2018

Dear Friends in Christ,

This Thursday, 25 January, is the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul, the Church's annual celebration of the day when Saul of Tarsus met the Lord Jesus on the Damascus Road — an event that changed Saul's life and the history of the world. 25 January is also each year the final day in a Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, an observance that begins on 18 January, the date in the old liturgical calendar which was the Feast of the Chair of St. Peter. So, the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity was devised to run between the twin feasts of the symbol of Peter's authority to teach and Paul's conversion to Christ, and this placement in the liturgical calendar shows us how Christian unity is to be found: through continuing conversion to the truth of the Gospel proclaimed authentically and authoritatively by the apostolic office of the Church.

In praying for Christian unity, we are asking God to restore full ecclesial communion to our separated brethren (both Orthodox and Protestant) in the one, true Church. But the restoration of that unity will be a world-historical event brought about only by the action of the Holy Spirit, and there is little that any of us can do to contribute directly to that lofty goal. There is, however, another dimension of Christian unity to which we can contribute personally, and it is both utterly simple and extremely difficult: we can each live in full communion with the Lord Jesus and his holy Church and do our best to show others how to do the same. This we do by radical conversion, deep fidelity, joyful discipleship, and courageous evangelism.

* Do I believe and profess everything the holy Catholic Church believes, teaches and proclaims to be revealed by God? Do I believe that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are inspired by God and contain no errors in matters of faith and morals? Do I believe that the Catechism of the Catholic Church is an authentic compendium of the saving doctrine of the Lord Jesus and a faithful statement of Catholic teaching in full keeping with Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition? Do I surrender my intellect and will in the obedience of faith to the Gospel transmitted in and by the Catholic Church?

* Do I live according to the saving truth of the Gospel? Do I attend Mass every Sunday and holy day of obligation? Do I confess my sins regularly in the Sacrament of Penance? Do I bear witness to Christ by my manner of life and my behavior, both personal and professional? If married, am I married in the Catholic Church, or if not, do I refrain from receiving the sacraments? Do I make decisions, especially difficult decisions, according to the mind of Christ or simply according to my own wisdom? Do I live according to the Ten Commandments and Christ's Law of Love?

Believing and behaving lead to belonging. If I want to belong to Christ and his Church fully and faithfully, then I must believe the truth of God's Word and behave according to the truth of the Gospel by grace through faith. As the Church concludes the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity this Thursday, let us be guided by Peter's faith and Paul's conversion to be committed Catholics and true witnesses to Christ.

A New Way to Invest in Your Family's Catholic Education

Attention Catholic School Families: New tax reform allows $10,000 from 529 Plans to be used for elementary or secondary school tuition.

The recent Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2018 made some positive changes to qualified tuition programs (commonly known as 529 plans) that may benefit you and your family. Starting in 2018, you can now take tax-free distributions from a qualifying 529 Plan to pay for tuition to elementary, middle, or high school (including all public, private, or religious schools). You will be limited to a total cash distribution from all 529 plans of $10,000 per beneficiary per tax year.

For example, if you have two children enrolled in Catholic school and pay $24,000 in annual tuition, you can take a tax-free distribution from their 529 Plans of $20,000 ($10,000 for each child) per year to help cover the cost of the tuition.

Keep in mind that contributions into the South Carolina Future Scholar plan will provide a South Carolina tax deduction in the amount of the contribution. Therefore, in the above example, you can put $20,000 into the South Carolina Future Scholar plan and get a $20,000 deduction on your South Carolina tax return. And then use this fund to pay for their tuition starting in 2018.

Contact your local tax professional or South Carolina Catholic Conference Director, Michael F. Aquilano at (843) 261-0535, macquilano@charlestondiocese.org for further information.

Requiescat in pace

Please pray for the repose of the souls of Carl Roman and Richard Walsh (father of Karen Joseph) who died recently. We extend our prayers and sympathy to their family and friends.

Prayer For The Faithful Departed

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls, and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Precaution During Flu Season

Because of the risk of spreading infections during cold and flu season, the diocese recommends that parishioners not shake hands (except perhaps with their own family members) during the Sign of Peace. A simple smile or nod of the head can serve to acknowledge our brothers and sisters in the Lord, and if someone near your seat doesn't offer or return a friendly hand, please do not be offended. Let common sense and generous hearts prevail!

Knights of Columbus Breakfast

The KofC Monthly Breakfast is scheduled for Sunday 21 January in the Pazdan Hall Dining Room after all the morning Masses. All are welcome to share breakfast with the parish family.

Prayer Requests

Please pray for all those who are hospitalized and for all those who are shut-ins, ill or recuperating at home, especially Ronald Labbe, Paulina Cruz, Brett Gervais, Judy Byrum, Michael Pinto, Joseph & Sandy Srp, Marie-Therese Isidore, Carlton Carpenter, Jim Barber, Jordan A. Upham, John Hever, Alfred Smith, Mauren Lukovic, Christine Tancrell, Dcn. 28 January

Dear Parents,

We are excited to announce a very special Real Love & Real Life family program sponsored by St. Joseph's Catholic School, St. Mary's Catholic Church, and Our Lady of the Rosary Catholic Church. Please join us:

When: Wednesday, 21 February 2018
Wednesday, 28 February 2018
Wednesday, 7 March 2018
Time: 6:30 pm – 8:45 pm
Where: St. John Paul II Center, St. Joseph's Catholic School, 100 St. Joseph's Drive Greenville, SC 29607
Who: Seventh & Eighth Grade Students with their Parents
Cost: $45.00 per family

Real Love & Real Life is presented by Family Honor, Inc. Since 1988, Family Honor has provided and promoted a family-centered, Catholic approach to chastity education.

In this Real Love & Real Life program, Family Honor will be presenting talks about communication, an understanding of our purpose in life, fostering virtues, including the virtue of chastity, recognizing what real love looks like, and fertility appreciation, ideas about dating and marriage, and much more.

We chose Family Honor to present a program here because they believe in parental empowerment. They believe you, as parents, are the first and best teachers of your children, and Family Honor wants to serve parents by helping to build and enhance bridges of communication between you and your child. Here, one parent shares what they liked most about the program, "It opened a door for me that wasn't open before between my daughter and me. I definitely feel more comfortable and confident discussing chastity with her."

There are lots of activities pulling families in many directions, but this is an experience that families look back on years later and say, "Wow – that really made a difference!" This is a chance to invest in one of your most precious assets – your child.

We are confident that you will find value in this program that far exceeds the registration fee of $45.00 which is due upon checking in at the first session. Scholarships may be available, as well. Deadline for registering is 12 February 2018. Space is limited so please sign up early at www.familyhonor.org.

Thank you for your interest, and we hope to see you at this program. We consider this a wonderful opportunity to learn more about building healthy, happy, and holy families.

Sincerely,

Gabe Lewis

Greenville Deanery Council of Catholic Women

The winter meeting of the Greenville Deanery will be held on Sunday, 21 January at 2.00 pm in the cafeteria of the St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Church, 307 Gower Street, Greenville, 29611. The members of the St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Women's Council will be our host and provide a lunch. The Deanery Board of Directors will meet at 1.00 pm in the same location.

Plans for community projects and a spiritual retreat in February are among the items on the agenda. All Affiliate members are encouraged to attend. We also invite women from all Upstate parishes to join us and become involved in the work of the Deanery.

Contact Greenville Deanery President, Susanne Wolfe at susanne.wolfe12@gmail.com or 864.313.5866 for more information. God's Work, Our Hands!

Baptism Class

Prior to having a child baptized at St. Mary's, you must have been registered in the parish for at least six months, attending Sunday Mass each week, using the stewardship envelopes, and participating in the life of the parish. Baptisms take place on Saturdays at 6.15 pm after the 5.00 pm Mass. Attending a Baptism Preparation Class is required and may be attended prior to the birth of your child.

The next class is scheduled for Monday 5 February at 6.30 pm in Sacred Heart Hall. Pre-registration in the church office is required. For questions, contact T.J. Nielsen at 864.679.4114 or timothy.nielsen@stmarysgvl.org.

Formed.org

Online resources are available to every member of our parish through a new program called Formed. This website includes a variety of free resources, including books, movies, podcasts, etc. for people of all ages. Go to Formed.org. Register using our parish code: 8B7VRM to get access to the resources. If you have questions, please contact Timothy Nielsen at timothy.nielsen@stmarysgvl.org.

Pillars of Christ

Pillars of Christ is a men's ministry led by a group of St. Mary's men who are on fire with the love of Christ and His Church. The group meets on Friday mornings from 6.15–8.00 am for prayer in the church and then in Sacred Heart Hall for study.

Mrs. Selmys has published several books and writes regularly for First Things and National Catholic Register. A nursery will be provided for young children, and refreshments will follow. Mrs. Selmys will also be available to sign her latest book, which will be available for purchase.

Icon Painting Workshop

St. Rafka Catholic Church, Greenville, South Carolina

Experience the unique spiritual world of the Byzantine Era through icon painting

July 16-21, 2018

St. Rafka Catholic Church
Greenville, South Carolina

Join us on this six day intensive course under the direction of visiting master iconographer and expert instructor Theodoros Papadopoulos from Greece. This Christ Pantocrator icon will "come alive" as he will guide you step by step, through the ancient techniques of Byzantine Iconography. Let us journey together, discovering anew, this traditional artistic expression of theology and spirituality often called the "meeting place of the Divine". Whether you are absolutely beginner or an advanced artist, this workshop offers an opportunity to learn and refine your techniques in this sacred art.

Your tuition fee of $680 includes most supplies including boards, pigments and brushes.

Space is limited and early registration is suggested.
