3 June 2018

Dear Friends in Christ,

As He was ascending to the glory of the Father, Jesus said, “Behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age” (Matthew 28.20). And He also taught us: “Amen, amen, I say to you: unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you do not have life within you” (John 6.53). He fulfills both of these promises by remaining with His Church and giving Himself to us in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.

“The mode of Christ’s presence under the Eucharistic species is unique. It raises the Eucharist above all the sacraments as the perfection of the spiritual life and the end to which all the sacraments tend. In the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist the body and blood, together with the soul and divinity, of Our Lord Jesus Christ and, therefore, the whole Christ is truly, really, and substantially contained. . . . It is by the conversion of the bread and wine into Christ’s body and blood that Christ becomes present in this sacrament. . . . The Eucharistic presence of Christ begins at the moment of the consecration and endures as long as the Eucharistic species subsist. Christ is present whole and entire in each of the species and whole and entire in each of their parts, in such a way that the breaking of bread does not divide Christ.” (cf. CCC 1374, 1375, 1377)

“The Council of Trent summarizes the Catholic faith by declaring: ‘Because Christ our Redeemer said that it was truly His body that He was offering under the species of bread, it has always been the conviction of the Church of God, that this holy Council now declares again, that by the consecration of the bread and wine there takes place a change of the whole substance of the bread into the substance of the body of Christ our Lord and of the whole substance of the wine into the substance of His blood. This change the holy Catholic Church fittingly and properly calls transubstantiation.’” (CCC no. 1376)

In the Most Blessed Sacrament we behold the same Christ now worshiped in glory by the angels and saints: Come, let us adore Him!

ST. MARY'S COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN

Our end-of-the-year Spring Luncheon was held on May 8th at the Green Valley Country Club. This is a time to reflect on our service work to the church, community and internationally; vote on beneficiaries to receive funds; recognize our board members; install newly elected officers; present our $1,000 Scholarship Award; announce St. Mary's Catholic Woman of the Year; recognize our elite 'Nineties Club' members; and remember our deceased Sisters in Christ whom God has called to their eternal reward.

The Sewing Ministry won the state Service Award at the recent South Carolina Council of Catholic Women's Convention in Charleston. They were honored for their sewing of pillowcases for the patients at the Greenville Children's Hospital. The nurses at GHS said that many patients bring their pillowcases with them for return visits. Additionally, the ladies have added sewing pillowcase dresses for the girls at a Catholic orphanage in Haiti.

The beneficiaries receiving funds this year were: Catholic Radio, Generations Group of South Carolina (home/program for sexually abused boys), Monastery of Poor St. Clare (Nuns are in need of a new car), Priests for Life, St. Mary's Church, St. Mary's School Endowment Fund, SWITCH (Human Trafficking Program), and The Laboure Society. Each received $500.

Father Bart installed the newly elected officers (Photo A). They are, from left: President, Rita Brown; Vice President, Kim Adams (absent and Pearlle Harris standing in); Recording Secretary, Elaine Stephens; and Treasurer, Barb Sanfilippo. Thank you ladies for coming forward in leadership!

Each year, a $1,000 Scholarship Award is presented to a female parishioner graduating from high school and continuing on to higher education or one who is in a continuing education program. Applications received are scored and a winner is selected by blind review. This year's recipient was Mary Lewis. Mary's mother, Dr. Kathy Lewis, accepted the award on her behalf as she is in Chicago attending classes (Photo B). Congratulations, Mary!

Mrs. Susanne Prevost was selected as St. Mary's Catholic Woman of the Year, 2018 (Photo C). Members nominate an eligible member who they feel has met the criteria of involvement in the areas of council, church and civic. Sue has been a member of Council for 56 years and works quietly behind the scenes in many areas. She has led the Friday Morning Scripture Study group since 1994 - 24 years of leading people closer to God. She crochets the crosses for the Baptismal gowns and knits hats for chemo patients, too. These are just a few of the ways she is involved. Sue will now move on for the title of Greenville Deanery Catholic Women of the Year, chosen in December. That person will then represent our deanery for the title of SC Catholic Woman of the Year against the 6 other Deanery CWOY at the 2019 SC Council of Catholic Women's Convention in Hilton Head Island next March. Congratulations, Sue!

We also recognize our members who have reached the age of 90+ years. We have four: Alma Furman is 99 years old and has been a member for 61 years, Ruth O'Rourke is 98 years old and has been a member for 77 years, Marie-Therese Isidore is 90 years old and has been a member for 10 years, and Mary Jane Shaffer is 90 years old and has been a member for 22 years. Mary Jane was able to attend the luncheon and is pictured in Photo D receiving an orchid plant from President Rita Brown.

We thank our 99 members for their dedication, talent, time and support. We also thank you, the parishioners, for your support of our events. We are a non-profit organization and any money raised is donated to charity.

After a brief break, we will begin our new year on July 1st and host a dinner sometime in July (exact date not known, yet) for the Home Works volunteers who will be in Greenville to repair the homes of the poor and elderly. Our first official membership meeting will be in September. Watch the bulletins for our information.

If you are interested in learning more about Catholic issues, making new friends, and growing in spirituality and service to the church and community, we invite you to join us. Contact Pat Webb at patwebb1010@charter.net or download the Membership Form on the church website. (Follow the threads from Parish Organizations to Council of Catholic Women. All information is listed on the form.) We invite all women of the parish to join us on our mission to serve. There is no pressure and your participation level is your choice!
