

St Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

22 July 2018

Dear Friends in Christ,

In 2003 I drafted the Principles of Evangelical Catholicism to help shape our common life as a spiritual family, and I offer these principles to help us all become mature Christian disciples who are committed by the grace of conversion to a life of right belief, right worship, and right conduct.

Evangelical Catholicism is not a movement within the Church or a sub-set of Catholicism. Rather, being an Evangelical Catholic is simply a way of understanding the vocation of every Christian to be a faithful disciple of the Lord Jesus and of thinking about the things essential to the Church's life as they have been explained in the teaching of the Second Vatican Council and the magisterium of Popes Paul VI, Saint John Paul II, Benedict XVI, and Francis. During the nearly twenty-seven years of his pontificate, John Paul the Great summoned the Church to the urgent task he called the New Evangelization, by which he meant the proclamation of the timeless truths of the Gospel in the new circumstances of our time.

Another way of expressing our commitment to the work of the New Evangelization is to say we must become Evangelical Catholics, and this in turn means that we must let go of cafeteria, casual, and cultural Catholicism by accepting the Gospel of Jesus Christ as a complete, coherent, comprehensive Way of Life. To live as true disciples of the Lord Jesus, we must surrender our entire lives in the obedience of faith to the Gospel, which is the power of God unto salvation for all who believe, and this in turn means that everything about us must be measured and guided by evangelical truth - our thoughts, words, deeds, relationships, sexual behavior, spending habits, political convictions, religious beliefs, leisure activities, lifestyle choices, business decisions, etc. And in this obedience of faith, the Christian finds not the constriction of personal liberty which the world expects but the authentic freedom of the children of God: "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." (John 8.32)

In each of the next eight bulletin columns, I will explain one of the eight Principles of Evangelical Catholicism, and the complete list, together with a fuller discussion of these principles, can be found on the parish website at www.stmarysgvl.org. The Lord Jesus was a sign of contradiction, and he promised his disciples that if they were faithful to his teaching, then they would also be signs of contradiction who would be opposed and ridiculed. Becoming Evangelical Catholics is about following Christ in the Way of the Cross, and I encourage every parishioner to study these principles carefully and then shape your life and that of your family by the liberating truth of the Word of God who proclaimed: "The time is fulfilled, and the Kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the Gospel." (Mark 1.15)

Diocese of Charleston

Safe Environment Program for Volunteers

The Diocese of Charleston has implemented a Safe Environment Program to insure the protection of all children. As part of this program, all Church Personnel (volunteers & employees) who have contact with minors are required to participate in safe environment training for adults and to have a background screen completed by the Diocese. Any volunteer who does not comply with this request must be denied permission to serve in any ministry involving contact with minors.

Beginning 1 January 2017, the Diocese of Charleston transitioned from the live Virtus sessions to a new online educational program offered by Catholic Mutual called Safe Haven. The purpose of this change is to improve access for everyone and to facilitate retraining throughout the diocese.

Prior to volunteering at St Mary's, all adults with regular access to those under age 18 must

1. Complete the Safe Haven online course and submit a Certificate of Completion. Virtus* certificates are no longer accepted; all volunteers for the church and school must have a Safe Haven course certificate on file with the Safe Environment Coordinator. Register at <http://charleston.CMGConnect.org>.
2. Submit a Background Screening packet which includes the
 - Basic Data Form
 - Acknowledgment and Authorization for Background Check
 - Disclosure Regarding Background Investigation
 - Driver Application Form with a copy of your driver's license & proof of insurance (only if driving for parish or school)
 - Credit Authorization Form (only if handling money for parish or school)
3. Read, sign, date and return "Code of Conduct Agreement" (numbered page 61). **
4. Read, sign, date and return the form "Acknowledgement of Receipt of the Policy Concerning Allegation" (numbered page 65). **

* The Code of Conduct and the 2012 Diocesan Policy are both available on the St Mary's website.

5. For continuing involvement, volunteers must comply in a timely manner with any new requirements as determined by the diocesan Office of Child and Youth Protection.

Background screening packets are available from and should be returned directly to the parish or school Safe Environment Coordinator in a sealed envelope.

An Introduction to Catholicism

What is Catholicism?

Is the Catholic Faith in the Bible?

Did the Lord Jesus found the Catholic Church?

Our course called An Introduction to Catholicism is designed to answer these and many other questions about the origins of Catholic Christianity and the shape of Christian faith and life within the Catholic Church.

The classes meet on Wednesday evenings from 6.30 to 8.00 pm from Labor Day through Easter, and all are invited to come and discover what it means to be a disciple of the Lord Jesus in His holy Catholic Church.

Social Ministries at St Mary's

Social Ministries at St Mary's* is a new addition to our bulletin. In it we will be introduced to members of our parish community who are working to make our world a better place by serving those in need. If you or someone you know would like to be featured, please contact Deacon John at the Office of Social Ministries below.

There are many children at risk in Greenville county – at risk of not transitioning into a productive, law-abiding, contributing member of society. The causes of this are many: Low income, parents who have to work multiple jobs just to provide the basic necessities, substance abuse & bad influences in the neighborhood where the child is growing up are just a few of them. Mentoring to these youth at risk is one means to combat this problem.

Meet Joe Bishop

Joe volunteers as a mentor to at risk youth through a volunteer organization called Mentor Upstate. Mentor Upstate presently has over 1000 mentor/mentee matches in the upstate for male and female students in elementary, middle and high school. The young people range in ages from 5 to 18 years old.

The mentoring relationship is a unique relationship. You are not the parent, teacher, nor counselor; instead you are an adult friend. These young people do not have much stability in their lives. As a mentor you become the dependable, stabilizing influence they want and need but don't know how to find. When it works well you watch your mentee grow in confidence and self esteem. You are rewarded in countless ways from the smile you receive when they see you, to the recognition that you have been part of changing the arc of their lives.

The need is great. The middle school that Joe mentors at has a student body of 450 to 500 students and less than 20 mentors.

The rewards are many. As with most volunteer service, it seems those who are “giving” receive more in return from those they serve. As Joe will tell you, becoming that mentee's advocate is an experience that is both rewarding and life enriching.

If you are at least 18 years old and want to learn more about becoming a mentor, or, if you are interested in any volunteer opportunities at our church or in our community, please contact Deacon John Heuser at john.heuser@stmarysgvl.org or 864.679.4113. Deacon John will help you to get involved, be engaged and become a source of blessing as you answer our Lord's call to serve those in need.

Pillars of Christ

Pillars of Christ is a men's ministry led by a group of St. Mary's men who are on fire with the love of Christ and His Church. The group meets on Friday mornings from 6.15–8.00 am for prayer in the church and then in Sacred Heart Hall for study.

Baptism Class

Prior to having a child baptized at Saint Mary's, you must have been registered in the parish for at least six months, attending Sunday Mass each week, using the stewardship envelopes, and participating in the life of the parish. Baptisms take place on Saturdays at 6.15 pm after the 5.00 pm Mass. Attending a Baptism Preparation Class is required and may be attended prior to the birth of your child. The next class is scheduled for Monday 27 August at 6.30 pm in Sacred Heart Hall. Pre-registration in the church office is required. For questions, contact T.J. Nielsen at 864.679.4114 or timothy.nielsen@stmarysgvl.org.

Both secular and religious observers agree that the sexual revolution has caused seismic changes for society across the globe. Mary Eberstadt, a secularly-trained writer who has written for Time magazine, the Wall Street Journal, the LA Times, among other publications, uses her training as a professional researcher to objectively assess whether or not the severing of sex and procreation has delivered on its promise to liberate women and make them happier.

A New Education Savings Opportunity for Current and Prospective Catholic Schools Families

The 2017 Tax Cut and Jobs Act now allows families to use expanded 529 savings plans to invest funds for K12 tuition in addition to higher education expenses.

Here's what you need to know.

What is a 529 plan?

Named after section 529 of the tax code, the 529 plan is a tax-advantaged plan operated by a state or an education institution designed to encourage saving for college. The federal tax advantage is that earnings on funds contributed to 529 accounts are not federally taxed when withdrawals are used for educational purposes. As of January 1, 2018, 529 plans may be used for K-12 education tuition. For more information, visit www.futurescholar.com.

What are the tax advantages of saving money with a 529 plan?

The primary benefit of a plan is that any earnings from growth over time are tax-free if they are used to pay for qualified education expenses. Secondly, contributions to a plan may be eligible for a State income deduction depending on where you live.

Who may open a 529 plan?

Parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, godparents, and just about anyone else can give the gift of a Catholic education by opening a 529 plan for a child in their preferred state. At the age of 18, students may open plans for themselves.

Is more than one account per child permissible?

Yes! Multiple friends or family members may open separate accounts for a child or contribute to one single plan. If there is more than one child, accounts may be opened for each child.

Is there a maximum amount that can be used to pay K12 tuition?

Yes, the maximum amount that can be distributed tax-free per calendar year is $10,000 per student, regardless of the number of 529 accounts.

I already started a 529 plan to save for my child's college expenses. Should I use that money to pay for K12 tuition?

This is an important question to discuss with your financial advisor.

How do I enroll in a 529 plan?

You may enroll directly with a State 529 plan manager or with your financial advisor. Please visit www.futurescholar.com to sign up.

Anything else I should consider?

Please consult with your financial advisor or accountant to determine the specific state requirements and select the best option for your family.

What does the Catholic Church believe regarding parental choice in education?

The Declaration on Christian Education, Gravissimum Educationis, proclaimed during the Second Vatican Council, neatly summarizes parental choice in education as the following: Parents who have the primary and inalienable right and duty to educate their children must enjoy true liberty in their choice of schools. While the expansion of 529 plans does not address all the concerns regarding inequities in our education system, it is a step in the right direction.

Contact your local tax professional or South Carolina Catholic Conference Director, Michael F. Acquilano, at (843) 261-0535 or macquilano@charlestdiocese.org for further information.
