

St Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

7 March 2021

Dear Friends in Christ,

The Third Sunday of Lent one year ago was the last time we worshipped together until the middle of May, and the enforced solitude and silence of Holy Week was one of the most difficult trials any of us had ever faced. Standing alone in the middle of an empty church during the opening hymn on Easter Sunday will remain forever etched in my memory as the emblem of the spiritual cost of this pandemic, and the other costs we know all too well: more than 500,000 dead, economic damage from the lockdowns nearly beyond calculation, and profound consequences for the physical and mental health of millions of people.

And yet, the danger was not nearly as severe as fear made it seem in the early weeks, and the vast majority of people who contracted the virus either never knew they had it or recovered fully in short order. The end of the pandemic is in sight, and we have learned how to live with this virus which will join the list of other viral infections, like the seasonal flu and common cold, which are endemic among us. The trials of this year have reminded us all that our mastery over nature is provisional and incomplete and that living with modesty and humility in this world is the path of wisdom.

In recent weeks as the number of new cases, the percentage of positive tests, and the number of hospital patients have declined, various restrictions in place for the past year have been relaxed so that we can resume public life. For example, there are now no limits to seating and service in restaurants and bars in South Carolina, and while each of us must remain vigilant to protect our own health and that of those around us, normal patterns of public life can begin to resume.

For these reasons, effective today I am opening all the pews in the church and removing restrictions on who can sit where. This does not mean that I encourage everyone to pack into the pews, and Gallivan Hall will remain open for additional seating for every Mass. But it is time to allow our parishioners to decide for themselves where they will sit during the sacred liturgy, and even with all pews open we will still be able to observe the WHO standard of one meter of distance in the church. So sit where you are comfortable, be respectful of each other, and remember that Gallivan Hall is open and provides extra space for everyone.

We will continue for now to have a single file line for the distribution of Holy Communion in both the church and Gallivan Hall, and everyone is still encouraged to wear a mask. If you or anyone in your home has a fever or a persistent cough, please stay home, and if you have recently been exposed to someone with the virus or just don't feel well, please stay home. These simple precautions will help everyone protect themselves and others even as we approach the end of the pandemic. Thank you for your constancy in these difficult times.

Pillars of Christ Men's Ministry

Pillars of Christ small group men's ministry meets either virtually or in person every Friday throughout the year. The ministry is focused on helping men to live out their vocation as Catholic Christian men in every aspect of their lives, be it home, work, church, or social. By it, men develop and grow in their personal relationship with Christ, His Church, and with other like minded men so as to be equipped in the battle against the temptations and immoral structures that surround us. We take as our foundation the Proverb: "As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another." If you are interested in joining our ministry, please contact Deacon John Heuser at 864.679.4113 or john.heuser@stmarysgvl.org.

Weekend Masses & Streaming Mass in Gallivan Hall

Gallivan Hall is open during every weekend Mass to provide plenty of room for everyone. Mass is clearly visible and audible in Gallivan Hall thanks to our cinema screen and sound system, and the rest rooms to the left of the stage will be open.

* Help us keep Gallivan Hall ready for the next Mass:

While you are welcome to move chairs to allow your family to sit closer together, please return them to their original location after Mass. Thank you for your cooperation. ******

All pews in the church are now open for seating; however, we continue to encourage social distancing and the wearing of a face mask. Our cry rooms remain closed because proper distancing is not possible in those spaces, and for now Confessions are being heard in the cry rooms on Saturday from 3.30 - 4.30 pm. The Wednesday afternoon Holy Hour has returned from 5.00 - 6.00 pm.

Finally, the dispensation from the Sunday obligation remains in force, which means that no one is required to attend Mass, even though all must find a way to keep the Lord's Day holy, and the best way to do that is by joining in the sacred liturgy live-streamed on Sunday morning at 11 am. If you are at risk of the severe symptoms possible from exposure to SARS-CoV-2, then please stay home and join us in prayer remotely.
