

St Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

10 October 2021

Dear Friends in Christ,

We now have new Bibles in the pews of Saint Mary's, so when you come to Mass this weekend, be sure to open one of the new books and learn your way around. Our new Bibles contain a different translation from the one found in our old Bibles, which after twenty years of use had become a bit dog-eared. The translation in our previous Bibles is called the New American Bible or NAB, and it was first published in 1970 and then updated in 1986. Even though we are required to use the NAB for the public proclamation of Holy Scripture during the sacred liturgy, there are several reasons why that translation is unsatisfactory, and so when the time came to find new pew Bibles for private study and prayer, I chose a different translation: the English Standard Version or ESV.

The English Standard Version was published in 2001 as an updating of the Revised Standard Version or RSV, which was published in sections from 1946 to 1952. And both the ESV and RSV represent the continuation of biblical translations into English begun by the King James or Authorized Version (1611) and its successors the English Revised Version (1885) and American Standard Version (1901). As the proliferation of translations suggest, it is not an easy task to render the Word of God from the original tongues into our language, and that work of scholarship needs constant revision both to be certain of fidelity to the inspired original texts and to offer accessibility to contemporary readers.

The English Standard Version, like the RSV before it, was the work of Protestant scholars, but just as with the two Catholic Editions of the RSV, the ESV is now available in a Catholic Edition (published in 2017) that includes the seven books of the Old Testament not found in Protestant Bibles. This version has been examined by Catholic scriptural scholars to verify the accuracy and orthodoxy of the translation and approved for publication by Catholic bishops, and all of this material is covered in nine pages at the front of our new Bibles in the sections called Foreword, Preface, and Introduction. Sometime when you are in the church to pray, reading those pages would be beneficial to understanding the history of this new text.

The Bibles in our pews are published by the Colorado-based Augustine Institute which also provides the outstanding catechetical resources at formed.org and is one of the leading lights of the New Evangelization, and their publication of the ESV brings this outstanding contemporary translation of Holy Scripture to English-speaking Catholics throughout the country and around the world. Saint Augustine, the patron of the Institute, was moved to open the sacred page of Scripture by the voice of children chanting: take and read. I hope that each time you visit our church you will take and read the Word of God in order more deeply to know, love, and serve the Lord Jesus Christ.

Volunteers Needed

Active and On-Call Pantry Volunteers: Catholic Charities is seeking dedicated volunteers to help in Our Lady's Pantry, a ministry that serves those in need by providing them with an emergency food supply. Volunteer assistance is needed in regards to greeting/check-in, personal shoppers, stocking, data entry, and food-bank shoppers. There is also a demand for volunteers with Spanish/English language skills. Our temporary operating schedule is Monday - Tuesday from 8:30 - 3:30 and Friday from 8:30 - 2:30. We plan to serve clients at least 2 days each week. Below is a summarized list of available roles.

Volunteer Roles:

Greeters welcome clients at the door and walk them through the check-in process. Greeters should be especially welcoming and representative of our Christian values.

Personal shoppers accompany and assist clients as they shop in the food pantry.

Stockers are responsible for our food inventory. This includes unloading the truck when it brings new food in from the food bank, and also maintaining the storage area.

Data-entry volunteers enter client/volunteer data into an online database. Being comfortable and proficient with using a computer is required for this role.

Food bank shoppers keep track of what items the pantry needs, and shops for those items at the foodbank.

Spanish/English interpreters help communicate with non-English speaking clients. Spanish language skills are also welcome in all volunteer roles.

If you are interested in volunteering then please email Jake Walker at jake.walker@charlestandiocese.org or call 864.720.2396. Our Lady's Pantry is located at 2300 Old Buncombe Rd, Greenville, SC.

An Introduction to Catholicism

What is Catholicism?

Is the Catholic Faith in the Bible?

Did the Lord Jesus found the Catholic Church?

Our course called An Introduction to Catholicism is designed to answer these and many other questions about the origins of Catholic Christianity and the shape of Christian faith and life within the Catholic Church.

The classes meet on Wednesday evenings from 6.30 to 7.30 pm from Labor Day through Easter, and all are invited to come and discover what it means to be a disciple of the Lord Jesus in His holy Catholic Church

6 Week Class on Galatians

St. Paul's letter to the Galatians is St. Paul's most passionate defense of the Gospel. Come see why St. Paul considered a little compromise to Jewish and Christian religious practice much more dangerous than Roman swords. In six classes we will look in detail at one of St. Paul's most impassioned epistles.

This class meets on Wednesday evenings from 6.30 to 7.30 pm in McGrady Hall (the Undercroft of the Church), beginning on 15 September and lasting until 20 October.

Offertory Envelopes and the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Marriage

If you no longer receive weekly stewardship envelopes in the mail, you may have been marked as Inactive within our parishioner database. No matter how often you come to Mass at St Mary's, you are not considered an Active member of the parish unless you are registered here, attending Mass here each Sunday, and using the stewardship envelopes to fulfill two separate purposes: a) making your offertory contributions and other gifts, and b) establishing an attendance record.

Active member status in our database is essential for requesting the following:

- ◆ Parishioner tuition in the school
- ◆ Endorsement to serve as a sacramental sponsor for Baptism or Confirmation
- ◆ Baptism, Confirmation, or Marriage (for oneself or for one's children, either here at St Mary's or in another parish)

If you use electronic transfer to make your offertory contribution and other gifts, simply check the box for EFT on the empty envelope and then drop it in the collection plate. All envelopes in the collection are recorded in our parish database.

Once six months elapses without any envelopes or online donations received, the account is marked as Inactive and envelopes are no longer distributed. To begin receiving stewardship envelopes again, please email Sarah Perkins at sarah.perkins@stmarysgvl.org

Baptism Class

Prior to having a child baptized at Saint Mary's, you must have been registered in the parish for at least six months, attending Sunday Mass each week, using the stewardship envelopes, and participating in the life of the parish.

Baptisms take place on Saturdays at 6.15 pm after the 5.00 pm Mass. Attending a Baptism Preparation Class is required and may be attended prior to the birth of your child. For questions, contact T.J. Nielsen at 864.679.4114 or timothy.nielsen@stmarysgvl.org.

Enlighten the Bishop in the choice of candidates, the Spiritual Director in molding them, and the professors in instructing them.

Lead the seminarians daily in Your unerring footsteps; so that they may become priests who are models of purity, possessors of wisdom and heroes of sacrifice; steeped in humility and aflame with love for God and man; apostles of Your glory and sanctifiers of souls.

Retrouvaille Marriage Program

"We registered for the Retrouvaille Program after another marital meltdown: tears, anger, frustration, talk of divorce. It was then that I realized that our marriage may not make it." Catholic in origin, but open to married couples of all faiths or none, Retrouvaille offered us powerful skills in communication and healing. For confidential information or to apply to attend the program beginning the weekend of 22 October, visit <https://www.helpourmarriage.org> or contact retrouvailenc@msn.com or 434.793.0242.
