

St Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

21 January 2024

Dear Friends in Christ,

This Thursday, 25 January, is the Feast of the Conversion of Saint Paul, the Church's annual celebration of the day when Saul of Tarsus met the Lord Jesus on the Damascus Road, an event that changed Saul's life and the history of the world. 25 January is also each year the final day in a Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, an observance that begins on 18 January, the date in the old liturgical calendar which was the Feast of the Chair of Saint Peter. So, the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity was devised to run between the twin feasts of the symbol of Peter's authority to teach and Paul's conversion to Christ, and this placement in the liturgical calendar shows us how Christian unity is to be found: through continuing conversion to the truth of the Gospel proclaimed authentically and authoritatively by the apostolic office of the Church.

In praying for Christian unity, we are asking God to restore full ecclesial communion to our separated brethren (both Orthodox and Protestant) in the one, true Church. But the restoration of that unity will be a world-historical event brought about only by the action of the Holy Spirit, and there is little that any of us can do to contribute directly to that lofty goal. There is, however, another dimension of Christian unity to which we can contribute personally, and it is both utterly simple and extremely difficult: we can each live in full communion with the Lord Jesus and his holy Church and do our best to show others how to do the same. This we do by radical conversion, deep fidelity, joyful discipleship, and courageous evangelism.

+ Do I believe and profess everything the holy Catholic Church believes, teaches and proclaims to be revealed by God? Do I believe that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are inspired by God and contain no errors in matters of faith and morals? Do I believe that the Catechism of the Catholic Church is an authentic compendium of the saving doctrine of the Lord Jesus and a faithful statement of Catholic teaching in full keeping with Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition? Do I surrender my intellect and will in the obedience of faith to the Gospel transmitted in and by the Catholic Church?

+ Do I live according to the saving truth of the Gospel? Do I attend Mass every Sunday and holy day of obligation? Do I confess my sins regularly in the Sacrament of Penance? Do I bear witness to Christ by my manner of life and my behavior, both personal and professional? If married, am I married in the Catholic Church, or if not, do I refrain from receiving the sacraments? Do I make decisions, especially difficult decisions, according to the mind of Christ or simply according to my own wisdom? Do I live according to the Ten Commandments and Christ's Law of Love?

Believing and behaving lead to belonging. If I want to belong to Christ and his Church fully and faithfully, then I must believe the truth of God's Word and behave according to the truth of the Gospel by grace through faith. As the Church concludes the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity this Thursday, let us be guided by Peter's faith and Paul's conversion to be committed Catholics and true witnesses to Christ.

Fidelis at St Mary's

Growing in relationship with Christ, family, Church, and community through the beauty, goodness and truth found in our femininity. This group is meant to bring together women aged 11 to 105 in a shared experience of what it means to be a woman in Christ. Taking from the weekly Mass readings, focusing on particular virtues each week, and sharing a meal with each other and our weekly guest speaker, our meetings will provide a place for women of all ages to grow in relationship with Christ, with each other, and with the community which surrounds us. The group will also work closely with as many of our established parish apostolates in community service projects, putting into practice the virtues we discuss and incarnating the beauty of the feminine complement of God's plan for us. Mothers, daughters, aunts, grandmas, cousins, sisters, religious, consecrated, whatever your state in life, you are a part of God's plan and we would love to have you be a part of this multi-generational effort to safeguard femininity and awaken in our youth a desire to be what God has called them to be. If you would like to join the small start-up committee and help get the St Mary's Fidelis Chapter up and running, please call Cristina Ortiz at 305.439.2172. Our group of women and young adults already praying for the apostolate and studying the program are excited to welcome some more prayer warriors, as well as people who can help with some of the logistics. We will host a Meet and Greet Q&A in early March. Please be on the lookout for that event at St Mary's. Paratum cor meum Deus, paratum cor meum. My heart is ready, O God, my heart is ready.

There is a certain poetry in singing.

Oft times we sing with voice stentorian,
Or shape a sound phantasmagorian:

But during Mass,
Beneath stained glass,

We'll sing the subtle tunes, Gregorian.

Thank You!

Thank you, salamat, σας ευχαριστώ, podziękowanie, hvala, danke, Дякую, grazie, vă mulțumim, merci, Спасибо, terima kasih! On behalf of the Stella Maris Seafarers' Ministry, the Charleston Port and Seafarers' Society, and all of the seafarers, I want to thank St Mary's Council of Catholic Women and everyone at St Mary's Parish for their support of the Seafarers' Christmas-at-Sea program. This year we were able to give out over 3,400 Christmas packages to the men and women we serve. For those who were far from their homes at Christmas this was a small, but greatly appreciated reminder that they are not forgotten, that the Lord cares for all of them. May God bless you always. Our Lady, Stella Maris, pray for us. ~Deacon Paul Rosenblum, Stella Maris Seafarers' Ministry Diocesan Port Minister

Seven Sisters Apostolate

"Mary took a liter of costly perfumed oil made from genuine aromatic nard and anointed the feet of Jesus and dried them with her hair; the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil."

—John 12:3

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is a call to strengthen the Church by ensuring that a Holy Hour is prayed each day of the week for the sole intention of a specific priest or bishop—a "holy wasting" (cf. Mt. 26:10) or lavishing of prayer for his deeper conformity to Christ.

The Seven Sisters of St. Mary's is in need of women to sit at the feet of our Eucharistic Lord for the priests of St. Mary's. Please consider if the Lord is calling you to serve through this prayer ministry. Volunteers are urgently needed for Thursdays and Saturdays.

Offertory Envelopes and the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Marriage

If you no longer receive weekly stewardship envelopes in the mail, you may have been marked as Inactive within our parishioner database. No matter how often you come to Mass at St Mary's, you are not considered an Active member of the parish unless you are registered here, attending Mass here each Sunday, and using the stewardship envelopes to fulfill two separate purposes: a) making your offertory contributions and other gifts, and b) establishing an attendance record.

Active member status in our database is essential for requesting the following:

- ◆ Parishioner tuition in the school
- ◆ Endorsement to serve as a sacramental sponsor for Baptism or Confirmation
- ◆ Baptism, Confirmation, or Marriage (for oneself or for one's children, either here at St Mary's or in another parish)

If you use electronic transfer to make your offertory contribution and other gifts, simply check the box for EFT on the empty envelope and then drop it in the collection plate. All envelopes in the collection are recorded in our parish database.

Once six months elapses without any envelopes or online donations received, the account is marked as Inactive and envelopes are no longer distributed. To begin receiving stewardship envelopes again, please email Sarah Perkins at sarah.perkins@smcgvl.org.

Baptism Class

Prior to having a child baptized at Saint Mary's, you must have been registered in the parish for at least six months, attending Sunday Mass each week, using the stewardship envelopes, and participating in the life of the parish. Baptisms take place on Saturdays at 6.15 pm after the 5.00 pm Mass. Attending a Baptism Preparation Class is required and may be attended prior to the birth of your child. The next class is Monday 11 March 2024 at 6.30 pm. Contact Deacon Joe Sanfilippo at 864.679.4119 or joe.sanfilippo@smcgvl.org to register.

Spiritual Direction

St Mary's has three certified Catholic Spiritual Directors available for individual spiritual direction. Contact Deacon Tom Whalen at thomas.whalen@smcgvl.org.

Church Donation Information

EFT Donation

St Mary's offers Electronic Funds Transfer through the parish website as a way to automate your regular weekly offertory donation.

EFT donation options:

Direct Debit Donation - automatically transfer funds from your checking or savings account.

Credit & Debit Card Donation - make offerings automatically on a pre-determined schedule using a credit or debit card.

Visit the 'Make a Gift' link on the homepage of our parish website.
