St Mary's Catholic Church

Greenville, South Carolina

15 November 2026

Dear Friends in Christ,

Because Saint Mary's Church is so close to the Greenville Rescue Mission, the Salvation Army, the Triune Mercy Center, and Main Street, our campus is often visited by the homeless. The vast majority of these persons are men, they are usually on foot and traveling alone, and most of them are burdened by mental illness or substance addiction or both. They may stop you in the parking lot or on the sidewalk to ask for money, and in turn, many of you have asked me for advice on the best way to respond when you are approached for help. So, here are my suggestions based on many years of experience:

Do not ever give money directly to anyone for any reason. When the moment comes that we are faced with someone in obvious distress and who is asking for our assistance, our understandable instinct is to help with a few dollars. But please understand that while such a reaction may ease our minds, it is almost never in the best interest of the one who is asking for help. This is not only my advice; it is the same counsel offered by those who work with the homeless and poor every day, including the staff of our local charities. No matter what story we are told by the one asking for help, we should always assume that the money will be put to self-destructive purposes. In short, money does not help.

Do stop and speak to the person who has asked for help. Perhaps start by saying "Friend, I regret that I have nothing to give you right now," and then move on immediately to a conversation. Tell him your first name, ask him his name, and look him in the eye. If you can, listen to him for a few moments and make it clear that you are present to him as a human person, rather than fleeing from him as a simple nuisance. The folk who live on the street are often frightful to look at, but almost never do they constitute a threat to anyone. A kind word and a direct look in the eye can be a great gift to someone who lives utterly alone. And be willing to speak by name of the Lord Jesus and his love for us all.

Having said that, we cannot permit anyone on our campus during the school day from 6 am to 6 pm, and so anyone attempting to cross our property must be asked to leave immediately. Saint Mary's contributes to the care of the poor and homeless in many concrete ways through various local agencies and programs, and we are always available to direct the needy to the places where they can truly be assisted but that is not on our campus. Your contributions to the offertory and the poor boxes are already providing the assistance which is available to those in genuine need.

Finally, please understand that in most cases there is little or nothing that can be done on the spot to help people who are homeless because of mental illness or substance addiction. Very often these men have lived on the street for years or even decades, and until and unless they find a way to peace and sobriety, the fundamental problems cannot be addressed. As you continue to your destination, lift up this person to the Throne of Grace and commend him to the mercy of God.

Christmas Flower Memorials

St Mary's parishioners are encouraged to participate in helping to decorate our church, gym and Gallivan Hall for the Christmas liturgies. Each year we set up a Christmas Flower Fund for that purpose. If you wish to honor a loved one, living or deceased, please send in your donation in the Christmas Flower envelope available in your envelope packet (or use a plain white envelope). Please print your name and the names of those whom you wish to honor. Memorial requests must be submitted to the church office no later than Sunday 13 December for the names to appear in the Christmas Flower list. Thank you for your cooperation and support.

Thank You!

The Knights of Columbus Council 13112 thanks the parishioners of St Mary's for your generous support of our Toys for Tots drive on 7-8 November. Together we collected 125 toys and $215 in donations for children in our community this Christmas. God bless you for your generosity!

An Introduction to Catholicism

What is Catholicism? Is the Catholic Faith in the Bible? Did the Lord Jesus found the Catholic Church? An Introduction to Catholicism is designed to answer these and many other questions about the origins of Catholic Christianity and the shape of Christian faith and life within the Catholic Church. It is also the perfect course for any Catholic who has non-Catholic or fallen away family members or friends, and wish to be able to better explain the Church's teachings. All are invited to come and discover what it means to be a disciple of the Lord Jesus in His holy Catholic Church.

Classes meet on Wednesdays at 6.30 pm in Gallivan Hall.
Visit https://smcgvl.org/christian-formation/intro-to-catholicism/ for more information.
Contact Deacon John at john.heuser@smcgvl.org with questions about becoming a Catholic.

Offertory Envelopes and the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Marriage

If you no longer receive weekly stewardship envelopes in the mail, you may have been marked as Inactive within our parishioner database. No matter how often you come to Mass at St Mary's, you are not considered an Active member of the parish unless you are registered here, attending Mass here each Sunday, and using the stewardship envelopes to fulfill two separate purposes: a) making your offertory contributions and other gifts, and b) establishing an attendance record.

Active member status in our database is essential for requesting the following:

- Parishioner tuition in the school
- Endorsement to serve as a sacramental sponsor for Baptism or Confirmation
- Baptism, Confirmation, or Marriage (for oneself or for one's children, either here at St Mary's or in another parish)

If you use electronic transfer to make your offertory contribution and other gifts, simply check the box for EFT on the empty envelope and then drop it in the collection plate. All envelopes in the collection are recorded in our parish database.

Once six months elapses without any envelopes or online donations received, the account is marked as Inactive and envelopes are no longer distributed. To begin receiving stewardship envelopes again, please email Sarah Perkins at sarah.perkins@smcgvl.org.

Baptism Class

Prior to having a child baptized at Saint Mary's, you must have been registered in the parish for at least six months, attending Sunday Mass each week, using the stewardship envelopes, and participating in the life of the parish. Baptisms take place on Saturdays at 6.15 pm after the 5.00 pm Mass. Attending a Baptism Preparation Class is required and may be attended prior to the birth of your child. The next class is Tuesday 15 December at 6.30 pm. Contact Patrick Ford at patrick.ford@smcgvl.org to register.

Spiritual Direction

St Mary's has three certified Catholic Spiritual Directors available for individual spiritual direction. Contact Deacon Tom Whalen at thomas.whalen@smcgvl.org.

St Clare's Job Opening

St Clare's Home is hiring a Director of Mission and Resident Services. The Director of Mission and Resident Services provides leadership and oversight for St Clare's residential program and resident services for mothers and their babies. The Director oversees resident services, residential operations, program development, staff supervision, quality improvement, risk management, regulatory compliance, community partnerships, and related administrative functions. The Director works closely with the Executive Director, staff, healthcare and behavioral health professionals, community agencies, volunteers, donors, and other partners to ensure effective and coordinated services. Because this position has significant responsibility for the care and well-being of mothers and babies, the Director must have a professional background in medicine, nursing, psychology, social work, counseling, behavioral health, public health, or a closely related healthcare or human-services field, with demonstrated experience working with vulnerable populations. Please consider being part of our mission. Email resumes to Vbaronkin@charlestondiocese.org. For more information about this position visit https://charlestondiocese.org/job/director-of-mission-and-resident-services/.

WHAT DO WE HOPE FOR?

Read the Catechism of the Catholic Church 541-546; 567; 946-962; 992-1004; 1016-1018; 1023-1026; 1030-1031; 1053-1054; 1471-1479

- The term "communion of saints" can be used to refer to the union of the Church that goes beyond time and space
- In the one Christ are united the earthly pilgrim people of God in the present and those who have passed from this life
- These latter include both those being purified who are in need of our prayer and those who enjoy glorious union with God who can intercede on our behalf
- The communion of saints is the Church
- In death, the soul is separated from the body
- The body corrupts, while the immortal soul meets its particular judgment from God and awaits a reunion with the transformed body
- This reunion comes in the final judgment when the Lord returns
- The same God who brought creation out of nothing is the one who can make this resurrection of the body possible
- Purgatory is the term we use to describe the state of those who die in the friendship of the Lord but are still in need of purification
- "Eternal punishment," the complete separation from God due mortal sin, is distinct from the "temporal punishment" from all forms of sin due to the unhealthy attachment of creatures
- The temporal punishment of purgatory does not refer to any kind of divine vengeance, but rather to the natural effects of sin on the individual
- The "final purification" of purgatory, therefore, is entirely different from the damnation of hell
- Those who die in God's grace and friendship and do not need purification live forever with God
- Heaven is the perfect life of communion lived with the Trinity
- This "beatific vision" of God is made possible only by God's grace, since humanity is incapable of its own natural capacity to see the
- transcendent God as he is
- Heavenly communion with God is the fulfillment of the deepest human longing and a state of perfect happiness
- In his earthly ministry Jesus proclaimed the kingdom of God as a future reality and one that he made present
- All are called to this kingdom which is characterized by God's loving mercy
- The fullness of the kingdom of God will come at the end of time

Feasts & Solemnities

NOVEMBER 1: ALL SAINTS
As our lectionary readings begin to turn our attention to the "Last Things" at this time of year. It is a fitting time to celebrate all the saints, both those that the Church has identified through the process called "canonization" and those we might not know about. We are united to them all in the communion of saints.

NOVEMBER 2: COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED (ALL SOULS')
As a complement to the celebration of the saints enjoying union with God, it is also fitting at this time of year to pray for all who have died and entrust them to the Lord's care. This is a good time pray for our deceased loved ones, all those in purgatory, and especially those who do not have anyone to pray for them. We should be mindful to pray for these intentions at other times of the year.

NOVEMBER 13: ST. FRANCES XAVIER CABRINI, VIRGIN
Mother Cabrini was the first U.S. citizen to be canonized. Born in Italy, she had a long-standing desire to serve as a missionary to China. Pope Leo XIII convinced her to sail in the other direction and serve in the United States. Despite difficulties and challenges, her service to the poor, sick, uneducated, and others in need, left a lasting imprint in this country.

NOVEMBER 21: PRESENTATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY
The feast of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary (not to be confused with the Presentation of the Lord on Feb. 2) commemorates Mary's dedication in the Temple by her parents, Anna and Joachim. An early Christian tradition said the couple was childless, and Mary's birth was the fulfillment of the promise of an angel. According to that tradition, they dedicated her to God in the Temple as a child.

NOVEMBER 22: OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE
This celebration marks the last Sunday in Ordinary Time before we enter the season of Advent. While it points to Christ's universal kingship of all times and places, it can be a reminder for each of us to ask whether we have allowed Christ to reign as king in our own hearts.

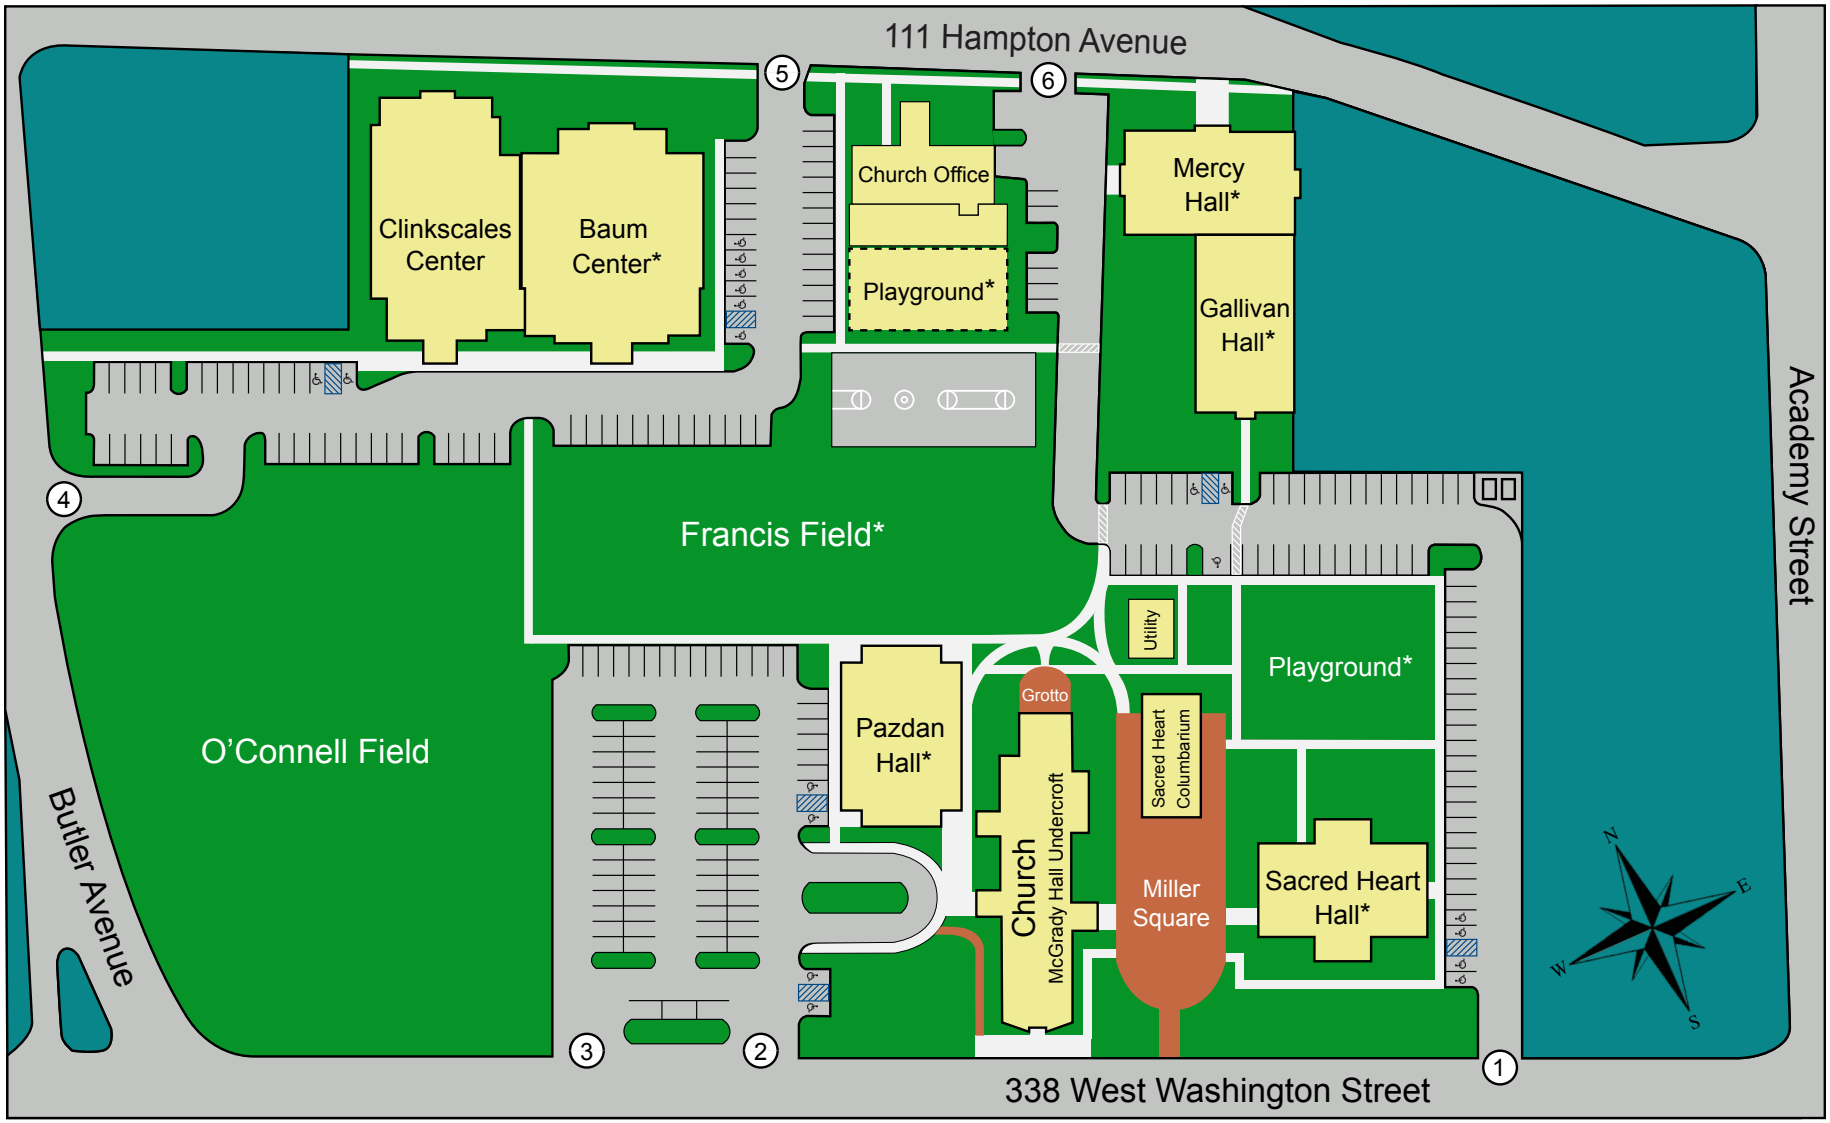

NOVEMBER 24*: ST. ANDREW DŨNG-LẠC AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS*
This day commemorates St. Andrew Dũng-Lạc and 116 other martyrs who gave their life for the faith in Vietnam from the 17th-19th centuries, a time of great persecution of Christians and missionaries. Hundreds of thousands of people were martyred whose names we do not know. These 117 men and women represent all those Vietnamese martyrs.

NOVEMBER 30: ST. ANDREW, APOSTLE
In John's Gospel, St. Andrew is the one who tells his brother, Peter, about Jesus and brings Peter to the Lord (1:40-42). He is thought to have evangelizes in Asia Minor and around the Black Sea, and is, therefore, the patron saint of Romania, Ukraine and Russia. According to tradition, St. Andrew was martyred on an X-shaped cross, representing the first letter in "Christ" in Greek (the letter chi, which looks like the letter X).

Saint Mary's Church has nine buildings on nine acres of land, so this map is offered to help you find your way on our campus.

Please note that during the school day, it is not permitted for anyone to walk through the interior section of our campus in order to safeguard the children in our care. So if you are visiting the church during a school day, please park in the Washington Street lot at entrances 2 or 3. And if you are visiting the church office, please park beside the Baum Center at entrance 5 and walk on Hampton Avenue to our front door. On weekends and any day when school is not in session, please park and walk anywhere you like.

*No access during school hours.
