Before each psalm the organist will introduce the psalm tone, and the schola will intone the antiphon. The people and the schola will sing the psalms in alternation, and each line of the psalms should be sung without pause for punctuation. Immediately following the doxology, the people and the schola sing the antiphon together.

PSALMODY

Antiphon: Our Lord will come to claim his glorious throne / in the Schola assembly of the princes.

Psalm 110.1-5, 7

Schola The Lord's revelation to my Master:
"Sit on my right:
your foes I will put beneath your feet."

People The Lord will wield from Zion
your scepter of power:
rule in the midst of all your foes.

Schola A prince from the day of your birth
on the holy mountains;
from the womb before the dawn I begot you.

People The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change.
"You are a priest for ever,
a priest like Melchizedek of old."

Schola The Master standing at your right hand will shatter kings in the day of his great wrath.

People He shall drink from the stream by the wayside and therefore he shall lift up his head.

All Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be forever. Amen.

Antiphon: Our Lord will come to claim his glorious throne / in the
All assembly of the princes.

Antiphon: Let the mountains break out with joy / and the hills with answering gladness,
Schola / for the world's true light, the Lord, / comes with power and might.

Psalm 111

Schola I will thank the Lord with all my heart
in the meeting of the just and their assembly Great are the works of the Lord;
to be pondered by all who love them.

People Majestic and glorious his word,
his justice stands firm forever.
He makes us remember his wonders.
The Lord is compassion and love.

Schola He gives food to those who fear him;
keeps his covenant ever in mind.
He has shown his might to his people
by giving them the lands of the nations.

People His works are justice and truth;
his precepts are all of them sure,
standing firm forever and ever;
they are made in uprightness and truth.

Schola He has sent deliverance to his people and established his covenant forever.
Holy is his name, to be feared.

People To fear the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;
all who do so prove themselves wise.
His praise shall last forever!

All Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be forever. Amen.

Antiphon: Let the mountains break out with joy / and the hills with answering gladness,
All / for the world's true light, the Lord, / comes with power and might.

Antiphon: Let us live in holiness and love / as we patiently await our Schola blessed hope, / the coming of our Savior.

✠ CANTICLE OF MARY ✠

Magnificat

Mode II, Falsobordone; Adam Pajan

Antiphon: Are you the One whose coming was foretold, or should we look for another?
Tell John what you see: the blind have their sight restored, the dead are raised to life, the poor have the good news preached to them, alleluia.

When Mary visited Elizabeth before their sons were born, Elizabeth proclaimed her faith in the Word made flesh, who then lived inside of His mother. Elizabeth cried out “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.” In response, Mary sang of her confidence in God’s love and providential plan for each of us, and this hymn of praise is known as the “Magnificat” from its first word in the Latin text. As the schola sings this canticle, all make the Sign of the Cross at the beginning of the text, which in the Revised Standard Version is rendered:

✠ My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
for he has regarded the low estate of his handmaiden.
For behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed;
for he who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name.
And his mercy is on those who fear him from generation to generation.
He has shown strength with his arm,
He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts,
he has put down the mighty from their thrones, and exalted those of low degree.
He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent empty away.
He has helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy,
As he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his posterity forever.
(Luke 1:46-55)

Antiphon: Are you the One whose coming was foretold, or should we look for another?
Tell John what you see: the blind have their sight restored, the dead are raised to life, the poor have the good news preached to them, alleluia.

✻ INTERCESSIONS ✻
